Judith Coplon Clings to 'Love Defense'

'Forgets' Meeting Details

Hotel Room Trysts Bared

WASHINGTON —(INS)— Judith Coplon today clung to her spy trial defense that she was in love with Russian Valentin Gubitchev, but declared she never would have thought of marrying him unless he renounced the Soviet regime.

Miss Coplon maintained her "love defense" despite her own admission that while she and Gubitchev were sweethearts she spent nights with another man.

Under cross examination by Prosecutor John M. Kelley, the ex-government girl had trouble remembering details of her meetings with Gubitchev in New York. But, she explained to Kelley:

"When you're in love you don't remember everything . . . maybe the fact of him saying 'I love you' just shot me into the air."

Kelley asked her whether she ever questioned Gubitchev, who was employed by the United Nations, on when he would have to go back to his native land.

BROKE WITH REDS

Miss Coplon replied that the Russian gave her the impression "he'd broken with the Soviet and gone to the U.N. secretariat."

She added that Gubitchev told her he was working toward American citizenship and that she assumed he had "an international status" — perhaps as a stateless person.

When Kelley asked her whether she ever questioned Gubitchev on what kind of progress he was making toward American citizenship, she replied that she hadn't.

"But she added indignantly: "You don't think I would marry anyone who is not an American citizen?"

Meanwhile, H. P. Shapiro, identified as the man with whom Miss Coplon spent a number of all-night hotel trysts, failed to show up at his Justice department office today. The department had no explanation for his absence.

RELAXING—Some of the 18 boys who are making the tour from New York to the Rocky mountains relax with their host, Author-Farmer Louis Bromfield, on the lawn at his home.

"LET'S GO"—Fourteen students from eight European and South American countries sit on the haywagon at Malabar Farm prior to the picnic for which Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bromfield were hosts Tuesday evening.

Toll Rises In Typhoon

TOKYO — (INS) — Some 1,307 persons were listed as killed or missing tonight in the typhoon and floods that have devastated large areas of Japan.

National rural police headquarters announced that 93 bodies had been recovered and that 1,086 missing persons were believed to have died in the storms Monday and yesterday.

These figures did not include 128 persons believed to have perished when the 600-ton ferry boat Aoba Maru San in the inland sea off Yamaguchi Prefecture province during the height of the typhoon.

Only two of the 130 persons aboard were known to have survived. One of the known survivors was a Japanese crewman and the second was a U. S. Army criminal investigation agent, Richard P. Davis, 21, of Cincinnati, O.

Five Dead In Ocean Mishap

DUNKERQUE, FRANCE — (UP)—The Dunkerque port captain said today that five crewmen were killed and 10 other persons injured yesterday when the Belgian channel steamer Princess Astrid hit a mine near here.

He said the rest of the 283 persons aboard the vessel had been removed safely in a swift rescue operation involving the steamer Cap Hadid, tugboats, fishing trawlers and lifeboats.

The Princess Astrid ran into the mine near Snouw Bank, some three miles west of the Dunkerque coast guard station. It went down in the same choppy channel waters where a motley fleet ferried the British expeditionary force back from France in 1940.

CIO Pushes Activities At Tappan

Redoubles Efforts To Organize Workers

The CIO is redoubling efforts to organize the Tappan Stove company, on the heels of a federal district court decision handed down in Cincinnati, a union spokesman said today.

Richard Niebur, field organizer for the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers, CIO, said organizing activities have been stepped up. Niebur said a number of Tappan workers were members of Local 758, during the time the union has been attempting to organize the plant.

He said he did not know how many belong to the union now.

Organizing activity became apparent with distribution of leaflets at the plant by three persons from the union last Friday. Niebur said that was the only time so far that leaflets have been distributed at the plant.

Meanwhile, organization of the Independent Stove Workers was disclosed yesterday with the issuance of incorporation papers to a group of Mansfielders.

According to the group's purpose clause as reported by the secretary of state's office, the independent union would seek to represent its members in collective bargaining with the Tappan Stove company and carry out other functions of a labor union.

Questioning of incorporators late yesterday brought only "no comment" answers.

Carl R. Willis declined comment regarding the new group. Joseph Rachel, listed as agent, said he would have nothing to say until after talks with the group's legal adviser.

George M. Lock jr., and S. O. Riggleman, also incorporators, could not be reached for comment.

The federal court in Cincinnati ordered the Tappan Stove company to carry out a National Labor Relations board decree to disestablish the Independent Employes' association, described as a "company union" and to stop discouraging organizing activities of the CIO.

Find Missing Woman, 85, In Woods

Mrs. Sarah Soladey, 85, who was reported missing from her home near Lexington Monday, was found in a wooded area about a half mile from her home shortly after 4 p. m. Tuesday.

Releatives said Mrs. Soladey, who has been confined to her home recently by illness, told her son - in - law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harick, R. D. 2, Lexington, and other members of the searching party that she had started out to visit friends in Steam Corners, but was unable to walk beyond the woods in which she was found.

Mrs. Soladey was uninjured when found by the searching party, but was suffering from lack of food and water during the more than 31 hours she was lost, sheriffs officers said.

Archbishop Fights Reds

State vs. Church Showdown Looms

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia — (UP) — Catholic church sources said today the Archbishop Josef Beran intends to continue his spiritual fight against the communist government despite its veiled threat to arrest him.

They said the Czechoslovak primate is determined to carry out his spiritual duties as he sees fit. He is maintaining a calm but firm attitude in the face of an approaching showdown with the government, they said.

Visitors Forget Horrors of War

Foreign Students Frolic At Malabar

By MARGARET MATTOX

Shortly before 6 p. m. Tuesday a large blue and grey bus drove into the driveway of Louis Bromfield's Malabar farm, and 32 teen-age boys and girls from 11 European countries, and one Iowa farm lad, all clad in the traditional American garb of blue-jeans and straw hats raced into the yard of the Louis Bromfield estate.

They were the international students who are winding up a year's study in local prep schools and colleges under the sponsorship of the American Field Service. They are on a 5,330-mile tour of the United States from New York City to the Rocky Mountains.

At the close of the 24-day tour, they will return to New York, and on July 22 they will board an overseas plane for their return to Paris, and eventually their own homes.

To interested bystanders they could have been young people from any part of the United States, healthy, active, eager-eyed youth such as the American

Hint FBI Will Probe Beatings

Night Riders Anger Congress

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Congress and the FBI may investigate a series of beatings administered by hooded, white - robed Alabama mobs.

Some members of Congress indicated the FBI already has stepped into the picture.

There is a possibility local authorities and victims of the night riders may be summoned for questioning by a House judiciary subcommittee.

Three key members of the full committee arranged a conference for today to discuss the Alabama disorders.

But Rep. Battle (D-Ala) said local and state officials and civic organizations already are taking action. He said they "should and could find out the facts." Interference by any federal agency, he said, might "confuse the whole issue."

Battle represents the district where hooded mobs recently have flogged or beaten a number of people.

Battle said he is disturbed about the mob operations in the vicinity of Birmingham and that he, too, has been unable to pin down responsibility.

"It seems like the Klan in some instances," he said, "and in others it seems to be groups of workers."

The federated Ku Klux Klan has offered to give $500 to anybody who can prove its members have been involved.

SUBMITS LIST OF BOOKS

YELLOW SPRINGS — (AP) — Antioch college said today it had sent a list of 670 textbooks to the House unAmerican Activities committee.

Senators To Hear Acheson

WASHINGTON —(INS)— Secretary of State Acheson was to plead with the Senate foreign relations committee today that failure of accomplishment at the Paris foreign ministers meeting makes immediate rearming of Europe a necessity.

Acheson also is expected to use the occasion to push for early and overwhelming Senate ratification of the North Atlantic alliance.

The secretary's appearance comes on the heels of a statement by President Truman that although the Big Four conference failed to make genuine progress on Germany, the "door is left open" for solution of that problem as well as "the achievement of peace in Europe."

Returning from the near-futile Paris discussions, Acheson commented to the chief executive that "we didn't accomplish very much."

BLAMES RUSSIANS

He expanded this view at some length to President Truman at the White House. Shortly thereafter the chief executive issued a statement blaming the Russians for the failure of accomplishment at Paris.

The president said the Soviet Union sought to return to the Potsdam agreement, which Moscow itself had rendered useless as a result of their "misuse" of the unlimited veto.

Mr. Truman said:

"They refused to recognize the important progress which has been made in western Germany since 1945.

"In these circumstances, real progress for the unification of Germany and its people was impossible."

Builds Park Near City

New Firm Constructs Coliseum, Race Track

Plans for a sportsmen's park to include harness racing, various kinds of auto and motorcycle racing, and horse shows, were disclosed today by James T. Little, of 238 Park avenue east. The project will cost more than $200,000, he said.

Little is president of the Richland County Sportsmen's Park, Inc., which will build the park on U.S. Route 42, about three-fourths of a mile south of Lexington.

Incorporation papers were received yesterday, Little said. His son, Ralph Little, is vice president. The incorporation details show that the firm has been authorized by the secretary of state to issue 5,000 shares of $10 common stock and 1,500 shares of $100 preferred stock.

Little has 42 acres for the project. The site is just off the left side of Route 42, going south. Entrance will be on Lindsey road.

Little said the work of grading the land has begun. Plans call for a one-half mile dirt track. A grandstand of concrete and steel will be 660 feet long, according to present plans, Little said.

The track will be ready in the fall, but harness racing won't be started until next year because such events have to be dated for some months in advance, he explained.

A Toledo man wants to offer two 19-day periods of harness racing at the track, Little said.

Construction of a coliseum for dancing and roller-skating will begin in about two weeks. Completion is expected by fall and Little said it would be open all year. That building will be 100 by 120 feet.

Vehicle racing will consist of regular stock cars, midgets and hot-rods. Horse shows will be booked at the park which will have stables for 100 horses, Little said.

Face 'Gamey' Meal

BRIDGEWATER, Mass. — (UP) — Prisoners at the Bridgewater state farm faced a special chicken dinner treat today with some misgivings. The main course consisted of 28 muscular game cocks seized in a state police raid.

Eastern States Suffer

No Relief Sighted

(Compiled from Wire Dispatches)

A June heat wave sizzled on today, seriously threatening $50,000,000 in crops in eastern states.

In Massachusetts alone, crop damage has already been estimated at $5,000,000. Hay and vegetable crops have suffered the most damage.

In the face of the serious drought threat, temperatures mounted into the 90's in the New England states, adding forest fire threats to that of crop loss.

There was no rain in sight for New York, and farmers said if no relief arrived by this weekend half the Long Island potato crop will be wiped out.

CORN HARD HIT

Corn, they said, was particularly hard hit. Twenty-seven days without moisture has withered it dangerously in the non-irrigated fields.

It was even worse in New Jersey. Crop experts said at least 24 hours of steady rain was needed immediately to save what is left of the crops which have received no rain for 31 days.

In Cleveland, the director of utilities warned that reservoirs were dangerously low.

If the supply drops too low there won't be sufficient pressure for fighting fires, he said.

Forest rangers in New England pleaded for cooperation from vacationers in obeying anti-fire precautions.

In Kansas and Oklahoma, meanwhile, farmers complained of too much rain and humidity which permitted diseases to cut the grain belt's winter wheat crop at least 60,000,000 bushels.

The drought failed to affect the Mansfield area inasmuch as heavy rains blanketed this section of the state last week.

Relief from a three-day heat wave was promised today by the weather bureau as a cool mass of air moved into the state.

However, some Ohio cities are taking steps to preserve present water supplies in the face of increasing temperatures.

Martin Steel Pay Boosted

A supplementary contract providing for a five - cents - an - hour wage increase for 500 employes of the Martin Steel Products corporation, was announced today by Emil Helbig, chairman of the shop committee, of Local 758, United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers, CIO.

The settlement provides, in addition, for six paid holidays and an automatic progression in all job classifications from the minimum rate.

Union members have ratified the settlement, which was negotiated by the union committee, Helbig said.

Three cents of the wage increase became effective June 16 while the additional two cents will be added July 16. Two years ago workers accepted a three-and-one-half cent hourly increase in place of paid holidays. Paid holidays are a new feature of the contract, the shop committee chairman said

The supplementary contract gives the union the right to reopen the wage question after Aug. 1, Helbig said. He added that about 500 employes at the present time were employed at the plant. The contract extends to May 30, 1950.

Coal Parleys Under Way

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., — (UP) — John L. Lewis and a powerful group of coal operators today open contract talks which may set a wage pattern for the nation's 12,000,000 workers in basic industry.

The mine chieftain meets with northern and western operators late today in a session which the indsutry hopes will provide the first inkling of what the miners want in a new agreement.

The current soft coal contract runs out eight days from now. The miners begin their annual 10 - day vacation on Saturday and probably will not return to the pits unless a successor agreement is negotiated.

Lots of Checks—All One Kind!

Widow, Fleeced By Love Pirate, Tells Story

By ROBERT SCHWEITZ

"He said he'd buy me a new wardrobe and return my $5 000," Mrs. Reseda Corrigan, Chicago, said as her plane stopped at Mansfield Municipal airport yesterday.

But Sigmund Z. Engel, 73, the veteran love pirate now being hunted in 48 states, didn't show up and the red-headed widow just "walked and walked and walked."

Mrs. Corrigan, 39, said she had been widowed for three years when she fell for the smooth line of Engel who has been fleecing women for over half a century.

"He told me he was a movie producer and offered me a job in pictures," Mrs. Corrigan said. So she "lent" him her late husband's insurance.

"Ziggie disappeared until he called me from New York June 12 and told me to meet him. I got off the train at Grand Central station, waited around for hours and walked to the Waldorf-Astoria hotel where Ziggie said he was stopping. The Waldorf never heard of him.

Then Mrs. Corrigan disappeared, too. While her two teenage daughters and son wondered where she was, Mrs. Corrigan said she just "wandered around" in New York.

"When I 'came to' I found I was in Newark," Mrs. Corrigan said. The widow phoned her daughters and flew home yesterday to Chicago, where she fainted in the arms of her son.

Police are looking for Engel whose record extends from coast to coast and through 42 aliases. His other most recent victim is a divorcee in South Bend, from whom he got another $5,000.

Reports coming in from all over the country on Engel show he left a long line of penniless widows in his wake. The reports also show that business was good. He netted, authorities figure, $1,000 000 in his travels.

Mrs. Corrigan had been supporting her children by singing at clubs and private parties. She said it was her voice that first attracted Engel.

"I didn't love him. I guess," she said. "I just admired his ideals."

"He had lots of money," she added. "He was passing all kinds of checks." Police say the checks weren't of "all kinds;" they were all the same "rubber."

FOUND—Missing for several days, Mrs. Reseda Corrigan was "found" yesterday in Newark, N. J. She is shown here as her plane stopped at Mansfield Municipal airport en route to Chicago. Mrs. Corrigan said she lost $5,000 of her late husband's insurance to notorious "love pirate" Sigmund Z. Engel.

Camel Corps Traps Smugglers

Egyptians Launch 'All-Out War' On Dope Runners

By HARRY WOLF

ALEXANDRIA, EGYPT — (AP) — Egypt has declared total war on the wily smugglers who slip an estimated two million pounds of narcotics across her borders annually.

This huge quantity is the yield of about 25,000 acres planted in opium and hashish in Syria, Lebanon and Transjordan, says General Monsef Pasha, coast guard commander.

Every province of these neighboring Arab states has its own factory where the drugs are prepared in blocks, stamped with a trademark and shipped here, he asserts.

Cultivation and trade of drugs is forbidden by law in Syria and Lebanon. Monsef Pasha recently urged the Arab league to enforce the law in both countries.

Meanwhile, coast guards and land frontier guards find a witty enemy in the smugglers.

Drugs are brought to Egypt by sea and land routes.

Large scale smugglers prefer waterways. Well organized gangs send agents to producing countries to place their orders. The dope is loaded in small boats or concealed among other goods aboard regular cargo ships.

The small craft head for desert beaches where the narcotics are quietly unloaded. Sometimes they run right into a trap prepared by coast guardsmen. Gun battles are not unusual.

Egypt's land frontiers — mainly deserts — are guarded by a colorful camel corps.

These "Mounties of the Middle East" are picked men, thoroughly trained for the job. They ride fast camels which can go for days without food or water.

Land smugglers usually travel by caravan. Their only hope is to slip their loaded camels through the camel corps men unseen. When sighted, they drop the dope and run. Most of the time when that happens they are caught.

Other caravans cross the Suez canal and pretend to be nomads or pilgrims back from Mecca. The other day a customs inspector did not like the behavior of a couple of camels. He ordered them slaughtered.

In the animals' stomachs investigators found several pounds of hashish packed in waterproof envelopes.

Heavy penalties for drug smugglers and addicts, plus the intensive work of the authorities have sent dope prices soaring. Some are 500 Egyptian pounds ($2,000 U. S.) a kilo (2.2 pounds) for the consumer.

The government is happy about the high prices. Now narcotics are out of reach of the lower classes. Despite the huge quantities still smuggled into the country, the authorities are hopeful that the day is not far distant when the ancient evil of drug addiction in Egypt will be wiped out altogether.

Sludge From Disposal Plant Blamed For Deaths of Fish

COLUMBUS — (AP) — The Ohio Conservation department agreed yesterday that sludge from a disposal plant was responsible for the death last week-end of some 1500 fish in the Scioto river near Chillicothe.

Warden L. Clark Schilder of the federal reformatory at Chillicothe said the "antiquated and inadequate" disposal plant serving 1500 at the reformatory and 3000 at the veterans hospital on the site of Camp Sherman of World War I, was responsible for the stream pollution.

Tom Gallagher, chief of pollution control for the Conservation division, concurred in the warden's findings. Gallagher said the disposal plant was condemned a year ago by the U. S. Public Health service, but had continued in operation.

Gallagher said "the very wild guess would be that 1500 fish were killed." He said the loss was relatively minor because the river was high and running rapidly.

He said the disposal plant was "a potential trouble spot for the remainder of the summer when the temperature is higher and the river stage lower." Gallagher said the fish suffocated because of lack of oxygen.

Warden Schilder said he had been trying to obtain an appropriation for construction of a new disposal plant, but had been unsuccessful. Gallagher said the "division of conservation would help the warden in any way possible to remedy the situation."

Gallagher also said the state, under the law, could file an injunction against the government to halt pollution because of the disposal plant, and could file a claim for the fish killed. He said nothing definite had been decided along those lines, however pending a conference with the state attorney general.

'Pappy' Walcott Battles Charles for Title

Publinx Program Released

AKRON — Official program for the Ohio Public Links golf championship at Breathnach Country club this week end was announced today by W. F. Bebout, tournament manager.

Starting times for the first day's play were posted along with plans for the annual state Public Links banquet Friday night.

A pro-amateur best-ball will be played Thursday to acquaint contestants with the course and the tournament itself will start at 6:30 a. m. Friday, Mansfield time. Golfers will play in foursomes and will start off of both the first and tenth tees so that all will have the same weather conditions. All should be trying out their putters by 7:30.

Mansfield's three entrants—Pete Thomas, Bernie Mathias, and Ted Etzel all have the later starting times. Thoma is scheduled to go off the tenth tee at 7:06 and Etzel at 7:12. Mathias tees off No. 1 at 7:12.

The order will be reversed in the afternoon with the one who started off the tenth tee in the morning getting the first tee for their final 18-hole jaunt. Mathias is the only Mansfielder entered in the pro-amateur.

Eighty golfers in all play the 36 holes Friday with the top 15 and defending champion Val Chiaverini entering match play Saturday morning.

The match play continues through Sunday afternoon, all over the 18-hole route, and Chiaverini is expecting tough opposition.

Among the hot-shots in the field are former champion Barney Hunt of Columbus; Jim Caspio of Cleveland, a national open qualifier; Don Shock of Dayton, former state high school great; Nick Ogrizovich of Steubenville, the national Serbian champion; Ed Koski of Steubenville, 1947 national Polish champ and runnerup in 1948; and John Nowack, Cleveland's city king.

The four-day schedule, Thursday, through Sunday, calls for a 126-hole grind—one of the toughest in tournament golf. For each of three straight days 36 holes are scheduled.

Fun is on tap Friday night at the annual banquet, with three mayors as speakers. Giving addresses will be Mayor Joseph W. Harding of Cuyahoga Falls, Mayor Charles E. Slusser of Akron, and Mayor James A. Rhodes of Columbus, national AAU president and head of the State Publinks association.

Paul E. Brown, general manager and coach of the Cleveland Browns, is a probable added starter on the speaking program, along with W. F. Bebout, the tournament manager.

Two toastmasters have been named for the banquet—Charley Burns of Akron, manager of the Breathnach club, and Fritz Howell of the Associated Press—both officers in the State Public Links association.

Lumbermens Win Second Straight In Softball Loop

Lumbermens came from behind with four runs in the top of the seventh inning last night to defeat Printzess, 11-9, and move into a three-way tie for first place in the Girls' Softball league. It was the second straight win for Lumbermens and deadlocked it with Westinghouse and Ohio Sport Center.

North Lake park won the other league game last night by defeating Spudnuts, 13-10, with a 19 hit attack. L. Miller and W. Lewis of North Lake hit home runs.

'Ez' Rates As Slight Favorite

By JACK CUDDY

CHICAGO — (UP) — The odds favoring Ezzard Charles slipped to 6½ to 5 today for his NBA-recognized heavyweight championship fight tonight with Jersey Joe Walcott, and bookmakers thought the price might be even money by gong-time.

A ton of money backing the ancient Walcott was pouring into the city as the time crept nigh for the 15-round bout at Comiskey park. Too, Charles showed up very poorly in his final preparations before he seeks the title vacated by Joe Louis.

FIGURES BIG GATE

Louis is one of the promoters of the show, scheduled exactly 12 years from the night that he won the title from Jim Braddock. And today the Brown Bomber said the bout would be a financial success—that the forecast of cool, dry weather would produce a $300,000 gate.

Charles spent the night at a downtown hotel after driving in from his camp near Kankakee, Ill. Walcott waited until today to come in from his training quarters at Momence, Ill., in time for the weigh-in at the Chicago stadium. Charles, 27, expected to scale about 179 pounds. Walcott, 35, aimed at 195—approximately what he registered for his two title fights with Louis.

Charles was established the betting favorite because of his comparative youth. Despite the general respect for Walcott's bag of tricks and his punch that had floored Louis three times, betting men were cautious about backing a contender who was eight years older than Charles.

Were Walcott a few years younger, he would be favored at about 3-1 because of his weight advantage, his trickery, and his punch.

In tonight's contest between youth and experience, Walcott was expected to try for a quick knockout, although Ezzard had been belted out but once before in 69 professional fights. Lloyd Marshall turned the trick in 1943.

Meanwhile Charles was expected to concentrate on evading Walcott's over-handed right in the early rounds, and to keep sending "sneakers" into Walcott's body until the "old man" was worn down.

FATHER OF SIX

Charles was expected to have more stamina than Jersey Joe, father of six children. Charles has been campaigning actively during the past year, whereas Walcott hasn't fought since his second bout with Louis, last June 25.

The winner will NOT be recognized as champion by the New York boxing commission nor by the British boxing board of control. To gain undisputed world recognition, he must fight the winner of the London bout between Lee Savold and England's Bruce Woodcock, scheduled for Sept. 6.

Twice previously have heavyweights fought for a vacant crown. After Jim Jeffries retired in 1905, Marvin Hart and Jack Root fought for the title. Hart stopped Root in the 12th round. After Gene Tunney retired, Max Schmeling and Jack Sharkey fought for the dijem in 1930, and Schmeling won on a fourth-round foul.

Baseball Meet Finals Begin

WICHITA, Kas., — (INS) — The NCAA baseball finals open tonight with the Southern California Trojans holding the favorite's spot in a four-team field.

The four teams earned their way through regional tournament to emerge as the best clubs among 1,500 college nines throughout the nation.

In addition to Southern California the finalists include Wake Forest, the University of Texas and St. John's of Brooklyn, N. Y. Texas and St. John's will meet in the first game. Southern California and Wake Forest will play the second contest.

LIMBERS FOR STRIKE—Mayor Roy Vaughn begins his motion to throw the first "strike" at the official opening of the Hot Stove league junior baseball program last night at the Gorman-Rupp field. Service-Safety Director Earl Garrison caught the pitch. However, rain spoiled the opening twin bill as Colony Alleys was leading National Electric, 3 to 0, in the second inning when the first game had to be called. Both games will be played later under the lights.

Big Ten Wins 4th In Row From Coast Track Team

By ROY CUMMINGS

BERKELEY, Cal.—(INS)—The gap is narrowing for the western conference known as the "Big Ten."

The Big Ten proved it with points last night at Berkeley. Its all-star track team walloped the Pacific Coast league's best, 70 to 62, in the ninth annual dual meet between the two organizations.

The victory was the fourth straight for the Big Ten. Prior to that string of wins, the PCC captured five consecutive meets.

Don Gehrmann, 130-pounder from Wisconsin, took most of the applause and just about everything else in sight. He won the mile in 4:16.5 and the half-mile in 1:52.2, nosing out Michigan's Herb Barten.

Gehrmann then tried a lap in the relay and was three yards in front when he handed the baton to Ohio State's Mal Whitfield, who added seven more and the race.

Mel Patton, upon whom the coast depended so much took the 440-yard relay anchor post for a PCC victory, and then won the 100-yard dash in 9.6. Then he reported an ailing leg stiffened and he withdrew from the 220. A victory there would have tied the points at 66 to 66 for the meet.

EASY VICTORY

Indiana's Charley Peters found the win an easy one with Patton out, going the route in 20.7, with Minnesota's Tom Mason second. The triumph was Peters' third in the 220's in the annual meet.

Harry Cogswell of Ohio State, Bob Comer of Minnesota, and Gehrmann and Whitfield combined on the relay.

Other winners included Whitfield in the 440, at :48.1; Jim Urquhart of Indiana in the two-mile, 9:18.6; trailed closely by Williams of Michigan and Twomey of Illinois; Dwight Eddleman, high jump of 6' 4;" Minnesota's Byrl Thompson, discus toss of 167' 4¾."

Lew Davis of Stanford put the shot 54' 8¾" on one try to tap the old record of 53' 11-½" set by Stan Anderson of Stanford in 1939. It was the only mark broken.

Glamour Boy Meets Evans, Here Saturday

Ronnie Etchison, one of the glamour boys of the wrestling profession, comes to Mansfield Saturday night to tangle with Rough Don Evans in the finale of a three-bout card at the Ashland road armory.

The 225-pound Etchison is rated as one of the top contenders for the National Wrestling association belt now held by Orville Brown. In the latest issue of "The Mat," wrestling publication, Etchison and Don Eagle, the Indian star, are listed as the two top challengers for the crown.

Evans, the fellow they call "One-Man Gang," easily qualifies as one of the wildest of present-day performers. His last match here with Whitey Whittler resulted in a draw when the referee stopped the bout because both grapplers were covered with blood.

Etchison and Evans will meet in a two-of-three falls match with a one-hour time limit.

Two girls will share honors with the menfolk in the 45-minute semi-windup. In this one Nell Stewart collides with Helen Hild.

The 30-minute prelimnary go pits Buzz Jones against Irisa McGee.

Tickets are now on sale at the City News.

Canton Plays Gorman-Rupp

Gorman - Rupp softballers will attempt to set their Ohio Major league record back at the .500 mark when they meet Canton Stark Brick at 8:30 tonight under the local lights.

The Pumpers have won one game and lost two in league competition, beating Akron Firestone but falling before Orrville and Wooster.

Bobby Regular is expected to get Gorman-Rupp Manager Nick Weber's call to do the pitching tonight.

Tribe Slips Down to 5th In Standings

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — The second division once more has claimed the faltering Cleveland Indians.

After last night's 8-2 pasting at the hands of the Philadelphia athletics, the tribe dropped into fifth place, a full seven games off the pace of the league-leading New York Yankees.

Early Wynn will make his first start since June 2 tonight as the tribe seeks to salvage one game of the three - game set with the A's. Wynn, who has been ill with hives, defeated Boston's Red Sox 8-1 on a diet of eight hits in his last outing. He leads the tribe staff with a 3-0.

Joe Coleman will hurl for Philadelphia.

The tribe kicked over the dope bucket twice in last night's encounter.

First, they allowed a left-hander, Lou Brissie, to beat them. Opposition lefties previously had been charged with defeats in five of the tribe's last seven victories.

Second, the Indians lost their first series in the current eastern trip. They previously had knocked off the Red Sox and Yankees.

Elmer Valo's grand slam homer and Brissie's four - hit pitching cooled off the Indians completely. The only thorn in Philadelphia's side was tribe right fielder Bob Kennedy whose homer and triple accounted for both tribe runs.

The score was tied 1-1 in the fifth when Valo slammed one of Bob Lemon's fast ones far over the right field wall for a grand slam homer. It was his second grand slam circuit clout of the year and second in two nights. The blow clinched the ball game.

HEGAN FEATURES

Jim Hegan became the 21st major league catcher since 1900 to complete a double play unassisted in the fourth inning.

With the bases loaded, he pounced on a roller hit by Brissie, touched home plate, and then tagged the pitcher. Philadelphia's coach Al Simmons was ejected from the game when he argued too vigorously that Hegan had touched Brissie before touching the plate, which would have retired only Brissie.

Wildness Is Costly To Office Cafe Nine

A one-inning absence of control by Pitcher Denny Berry cost Office Cafe its undefeated record in the National softball league yesterday as it fell, 5-3, before Ideal Electric.

The Cafe nine led 1-0 going into the bottom half of the second frame, when Ideal came back for four runs. Rich Snavely led off with a double. Prosser was hit by a pitched ball and then Berry walked four straight men to push in three runs. The fourth scored on a long fly.

Office Cafe held first place in the league with a 3-1 record despite its dfeat. D. & M. Cigar store moved up to second with a 2-1 mark and Westinghouse, although winning, dropped to third with 3-2.

D. & M. edged 164th Fighter Squadron, 4-1, behind the one-hit pitching of Don Gross, while Westinghouse blasted Mansfield Tire, 13-6.

Friend of Westinghouse hit the only home run of the night.

Gorgeous Gussie In Two Matches

WIMBLEDON, Eng. — (UP) — Fancy - pants Gussie Moran faced the toughest assignment today in the Wimbledon tennis championships when she was called upon for a second round singles match and a rugged mixed doubles test.

Gorgeous Gussie, whose laced-lined scanties gave England its gaudiest spectacle since the coronation, was due to meet Betty Wilford of Britain in singles and then team with Bob Falkenburg of Hollywood, Cal., for a second round mixed doubles duel against Heraldo and Maria Weiss of Argentina.

Two Unbeaten Softball 9's Play Tonight

The most important softball game of the yet-young season is to be played at Liberty park at 6:15 p. m. today with the leadership of the fast American league at stake.

Battling for undisputed possession of the top spot will be Liederkranz and VFW Post 3494, both undefeated in three league starts. The teams are led by two of the best pitchers in the city, Kenny Windsor and Ronnie Hunt.

Since both have already met and beaten the most of the tougher teams in the circuit, the winner of today's contest is likely to be the first half champion of the league.

Two other games will be played in the loop. Isaly Dairy's "kids" will meet Sons of German at Prospect park and Farm Tools will play Todd's Jewelry at Johns.

Sons of Herman is probably the only team with a chance to steal the first half bunting from Liederkranz and VFW. The Herman team has been beaten only by Liederkranz in three starts.

Farm Tools is still looking for its first victory.

A Recreation league game pairs Western and Southern Insurance with Leedy Electric at Farm Tools field.

Studebakers Boost Lead In 'A' Loop

Gibson Studebaker all but sewed up the first half championship of the News-Journal A league last night as it racked up 45½ points to boost its lead. Gibson now has 364 points to second place Myers Supply's 331½ with only one week of play to go.

"Old Reliable" Joe Mayer and young Arnie Adams were the medalists for the night as each turned in two-under-par 34's over the Possum Run outside nine. Mayer's score and a one-under 35 by No. 3 man Nick Komjenovich put Gibson's over the top. Other sub-par scores were 35's by Pete Zeides and John Kleshinski, both number one men.

Only two men—Komjenovich and Adams—won the full possibility of 18 points. Mayer and Harold Bogner, Myers Supply, took down 17½ each.

Bogner had a par 36 to rate along with Ed Blonston, Ted Etzel, Grant Hannawald, and Clare Bell. Etzel's score was shot in advance as he is on vacation and spending his time practicing at Breathnach Country club, Akron, scene of the Ohio Public links tournament.

Ideal Billiards, second until yesterday, dropped to third with 319 points.

John Sain Mystery Baffles Observers

By JOE REICHLER, Associated Press Sports Writer

The mystery of Johnny Sain and his loss of pitching magic grows deeper every time the former Boston ace takes the mound.

Veteran observers, who watched the 30-year-old curveballing righthander ring up 24 victories for the Braves last year, are at a loss to explain his all-too-numerous dismal performances this season.

What has happened to Sain, a 20-game winner for the past three seasons? He is not in ill health and Sain insists his arm is as strong as ever. Then what is wrong?

Could it be that reports of strife between the pitcher and Manager Billy Southworth are true? Sain has never bothered to deny persistent reports that he and Southworth are on non-speaking terms. True or not, he is certain to finish the season under Southworth for the simple reason that the trading deadline has passed.

Sain yesterday dropped his fifth straight and his eighth of the year as the Chicago Cubs downed the Braves, 8-4, in the National league's only day game. The defeat, coupled with Philadelphia's 9-4 triumph over the Pirates in a night game, dropped the Braves into fourth place.

Sain, who has won four games, went the distance for a change, but was pummelled for nine hits, six of them for extra bases. He had been batted out of the box in five of his six previous starts. In all, he has failed to go the route eight times this year. He last won a game on May 22, a month ago.

Brooklyn increased its first place lead over the St. Louis Cardinals to a game and a half, defeating the Reds in Cincinnati, 9-4, while the New York Giants were downing the Cards, 6-5 in a 12-inning thriller in St. Louis.

REDS TAKE LEAD

The Reds, who have won only one game from Brooklyn at Crosley field since 1947, took a 3-1 lead in the third inning when Peanuts Lowrey homered with one on. The lead held up until the sixth when singles by Jackie Robinson, Carl Furillo, Billy Cox and Pitcher Preacher Roe put the Brooks ahead 4-3. Furillo's double in the seventh with the bases full, his fourth hit of the game, put it on ice.

Willard Marshall tripled in the top of the 12th, then crossed the plate with the Giants' winning run of Wes Westrum's long fly. A grand slam homer by Joe Lafata, subbing for the slumping Johnny Mize at first, kept the Giants in the game.

Willie (Puddin' Head) Jones slammed two home runs to lead the Phils to their second straight win over the Pirates.

The Philadelphia Athletics moved into second place in the American league, winning their second straight over Cleveland, 8-2. They moved past Detroit by a half game and trail the front running New York Yankees by four.

Lefty Lou Brissie limited the tribe to four hits—a triple and home run by Bob Kennedy—for his seventh triumph. Elmer Valo contributed the scoring punch, a grand slam home run off losing pitcher Bob Lemon. He also had two singles and two stolen bases.

Lefty Mel Parnell pitched the Boston Red Sox into fourth place, 6-1, against Detroit. Ted Williams helped the Red Sox stretch their winning streak to six straight, hitting his 17th home run off Art Houtteman in the sixth with two aboard.

Sid Hudson pitched a four-hitter as the Washington Senators whipped the Chicago White Sox, 9-3.

The Yankees and St. Louis Browns had an off day.

Top Bladers To Compete On Hudson

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y.—(AP) — The biggest turnout of crews in the history of the Poughkeepsie regatta — 30 strong — will match strokes in three races in the Hudson river classic next Saturday.

Nine shells will take part in the freshman test of two miles, starting at 3 p. m. The junior varsity race, also with nine entries, will be at three miles, while the varsity, likewise at three miles, has drawn a dozen crews. The previous high was 29 last year.

Competing colleges includes the members of the Intercollegiate Rowing association—Columbia, Navy, Princeton, Syracuse, Cornell and Pennsylvania — along with California, Washington, Massachusets Institute of Technology, Stanford, Wisconsin and Rutgers, which were invited.

One of the main innovations is that for the first time, customers lining the banks of the Hudson will stand an even chance of knowing which crew is in front.

The stalwarts in the boats will wear individually colored jerseys. This will enable the spectators merely to look at their programs to identify any crew.

Washington, defending champion in all three races, is rated the crew to beat. And if anyone is going to beat the Huskies, opposing coaches give the best chance to the University of California.

9 STRAIGHT WINS

Ky Ebright's Olympic champions have won nine straight over a two-year span, and already have scored one victory over Washington. In addition, Washington coach Al Ulbrickson has been so displeased with the performance of his charges that he has switched the junior varsity into the varsity boat. Whether he will stick to the change is not certain.

The "new varsity" beat Wisconsin by a scant eight feet on Friday, while the "old varsity," rowing as the Jayvees, whipped the Badger Juniors by seven lengths.

5 doctors prove this plan breaks the laxative habit

If you take laxatives regularly—here's how you can stop!

Because 5 New York doctors now have proved you may break the laxative habit. And establish your natural powers of regularity. Eighty-three per cent of the cases tested did it. So can you.

Stop taking whatever you now take. Instead: Every night for one week take 2 Carter's Pills. Second week—one each night. Third week—one every other night. Then—nothing!

Every day, drink eight glasses of water; set a definite time for regularity.

Five New York doctors proved this plan can break the laxative habit.

How can a laxative break the laxative habit? Because Carter's Pills "unblock" the lower digestive tract and from then on let it make use of its own natural powers.

Further—Carter's Pills contain no habit-forming drugs.

Break the laxative habit . . . with Carter's Pills . . . and be regular naturally.

When worry, overeating, overwork make you irregular temporarily—take Carter's Pills temporarily. And never get the laxative habit.

Get Carter's Pills at any drugstore for 'em today. You'll be grateful the rest of your life.

Who says

THERE'S NOTHING NEW UNDER THE SUN?

We don't—because we've just installed a new John Bean VISUALINER in our Steering Service Department. It's the first machine we ever saw that can make driving safer by harnessing beams of light. Checks the wheel alignment on an automobile quick-as-a-flash and even projects a picture on a screen so that you can SEE FOR YOURSELF if your car needs attention.

But you don't have to take our word for it. Drive in and let the VISUALINER show you why your car is steering hard. After all, SEEING IS BELIEVING and you can see for yourself whether your automobile is right for safe, economical, high-speed driving.

Alabama's Newspapers Draw Praise

Launch Economy Drive In State

MONTGOMERY, ALA. — (AP) — A typewriter crusade against government spending has focused new attention on the part Alabama newspapers play in state affairs.

Even governor James E. Folsom, who used to laugh at "them lying" papers, has changed his attitude somewhat under the heat of publicity.

Leaders in the legislature openly recognize the power of the press. They've appealed to the dailies to help save the state from a "financial crisis." Without that support, they say the job is hopeless.

That's why economy-minded Senator Bruce Henderson and some of his colleagues invited editors and publishers from all over the state to a conference earlier this month. They wanted to point out some of the "serious weaknesses" in the state's financial structure and to explain how they hope to correct them.

They wanted the people to know, too, that they weren't shooting at Folsom or anyone else, although they made it plain they don't like the way the governor spends the state's money. They call it extravagant and wasteful.

The weaknesses they intend to fix, said Henderson, should have been corrected years ago, but it was not until Folsom became governor that the need became so evident.

That's the story they wanted told, and they asked the newspapers to put it over. As Henderson expressed it, the press has the "only adequate means of approach to the people."

Most of Alabama's 19 dailies were represented. They pledged their support to the legislature without a dissenting vote.

It wasn't an entirely new story to newspapermen. For more than two years since Folsom took office they have held the light of publicity on even the slightest suggestion of unwise public spending.

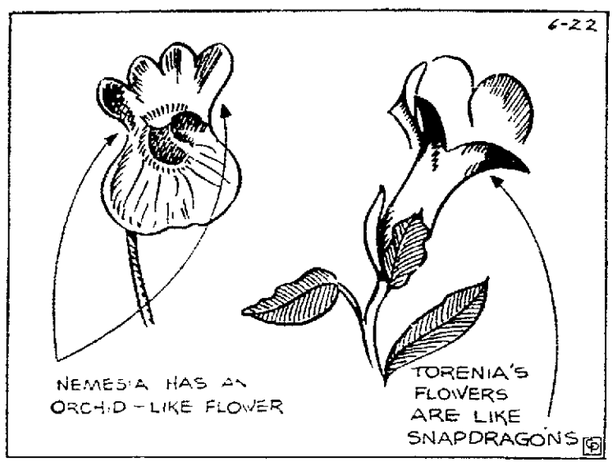
Probably no administration in modern political history in Alabama has been watched so closely. One example is the temporary clerk hire fund, the unlimited expense account the governor used freely to put scores of employes and even legislators on the state payroll.

Constant newspaper reports of the spending resulted in the legislature clamping a ceiling on a fund which for years had had no limit.

Henderson said the vigilance of the press gave the legislature "wonderful help" in spotlighting defects in the state's budget and financial control act.

Today's Garden Graph

Annuals Often Overlooked



By DEAN HALLIDAY
(By Central Press)

There are many excellent annuals which never appear in the average home garden. Some of these annuals are edging plants whose flowers can be used for the miniature bouquets now so popular for display at flower shows.

Among the annuals only too often overlooked are Torenia, Alyssum maritimum, Asperula azurea, Brachycome, Browallia, Diascia barberae, Linaria maroccana hybrids, Nemesia, Phacelia, Viscaria and Sanvitalia, or creeping zinnia.

Torenia has rich dark green foliage and bears snapdragon-like flowers, one of which is shown in the accompanying Garden-Graph. The flowers are small but attractively colored in lavender-blue edged with rich purple.

Although Torenia is an annual it proves useful in the perennial garden. It does well in shady areas and is generous with its blooms. As Torenia is shallow rooted it can be used to follow a bulb planting which is not being lifted.

Also illustrated is the flower of Nemesia which is like a miniature orchid. It is only an inch in diameter but the plants produce them in profusion. The colors range from white through pale yellow to orange and pink to crimson, with a great variety of throat markings.

Although Nemesia will grow well in sunny locations, it dislikes hot, dry weather. If the plants are kept well watered, however, they can be successfully carried through the "dog days." Nemesia will do best in a location that is somewhat protected from hot sun. If possible this annual should be planted north and east of tall-growing plants.

32 Students Forget War To Frolic At Malabar Farm

people see every day on any Main street in the nation.

But with the exception of Gene Woodcock, the 21-year old national 4-H Holstein dairy champion of Tripoli, Iowa, who is serving as the foreign students' "guide" on the tour, all could relate stories of the terror and suffering of living in war-torn countries.

However, Mrs. Eleanor Zeigler of Chicago, one of the chaperones on the tour, explained that the young people agreed before leaving they would not discuss any of their war experiences.

SAW WAR TRAGEDY

This despite the fact that one boy lived in Pepinster, Belgium, which was occupied by the Germans for four years; a Czechoslovakian lad lived with his parents in the Sudentenland and had to flee when the Germans took it over, only to have his father later imprisoned by the Gestapo for political activity, while an attractice 17-year-old French girl could tell how she and her mother used their house in Toulouse as a contact point between Allied couriers and the French Underground, right under the noses of Gestapo headquarters across the street.

But all that is forgotten now and the thought uppermost in the minds of each of the youths is to enjoy the few remaining weeks left to them in the United States.

The attitude of all the touring visitors was summed up by Jiri Koralka, a friendly 17-year-old lad from Prostejov, Czechoslovakia, who said:

"The most admirable thing about America is the lack of affection. You can easily make friends with Americans; they call each other with the first name instead of various titles. Political differences don't prevent friendship between an ardent Republican and an ardent Democrat. Only at election times are their opinions different . . . a good example for quarreling Europe."

In the group, which left New York City Sunday at 6 a. m., are 18 boys and 15 girls, aged from 15 to 23 years, all of whom have just finished a year's scholarship study in eastern schools, financed entirely by the American Field Service, a unique volunteer organization of 3,500 U. S. citizens who served as volunteer ambulance drives with allies in the two world wars.

Countries represented in the group are Belgium, Czechoslovakia, Ecuador, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Italy, Netherlands, Norway and Sweden.

The students left Pittsburgh Tuesday morning for Mansfield. Following the picnic and hayride at Malabar last night they were guests of Scotty's Tourist Home on the Ashland road, where they stayed overnight and had breakfast before leaving at 10:30 this morning for South Bend, Ind. Tomorrow they will tour the Studebaker plant, and be guests of company officials for the day. Their next stop will be Chicago where they will be guests at the opening of the Railroad fair on Saturday.

ROOM, BOARD FREE

Mrs. Zeigler, in extolling the hospitality and friendliness of the people who are cooperating to make this tour so successful, explained that during the entire 24-day trip, the American Field Service will purchase only four meals for the group. All other meals, as well as overnight accommodations and entertaining has been volunteered by individuals, corporations, Chambers of Commerce and service clubs.

One of the highlights of the trip will be the visit to the home of Gene Woodcock, the American boy from Tripoli, Iowa, (population 1001) where the Tripoli Boosters will be hosts to the touring students for a picnic supper and softball game next Sunday on the 200-acre farm of Gene's parents.

And in return for Gene's kindness in entertaining the group, the students planned a surprise for him. They have invited him to accompany them on their plane trip to Paris, where he will have an opportunity to visit some of their countries. This offer came as a surprise to Gene, who when asked last night how long he planned to remain in Europe, replied, "As long as my money holds out."

Just how much the European students have learned of the American habits and customs was demonstrated last night at the Malabar picnic when Helen Van Manen, 18, of Driebergen, Netherlands, was asked if she was familiar with the great American product the "hot dog." She smilingly replied, "After a year in America who wouldn't be?"

While most of the youths are reluctant to leave America, Jeanne Knaepen, 17, of Brussels, is looking forward to starting her first job, one which was secured for her by the principal of her high school in Brussels. She will be a secretary with the Brussells office of the New York Herald-Tribune.

More pleasure is in store for Oddvin Egge, an 18-year-old youth from Elverum, Norway, when he returns home. He was so popular with his classmates at Hotchkiss school at Lakeville, Conn., that his fellow students bought him an old Ford for graduation, are having it re-conditioned and will ship it to Norway for him.

Guest To Fly To Concert In Ashland

Singer Featured At Inaugural Event

ASHLAND — Mrs. Elsie Barcus Gould, New York radio singer and former Ashlander, will fly here Thursday to serve as guest artist at the inaugural band concert in the new Guy C. Myers band shell at Brookside park, Thursday night.

— Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Barcus of Ashland, Mrs. Gould, whose professional name is Elaine Blythe, has appeared on broadcasts of NBC and CBS networks and is soloist at Calvary Baptist church in New York City.

In addition to Mrs. Gould's appearance, the concert will feature a band number composed by Vernon Reeder, Ashland musical instructor and dedicated to Dr. Louis E. Pete, director of the summer concert band. The number is entitled the Guy C. Myers Band Shell March.

Formal dedication of the new band shell, which seats 100 musicians and is placed before a seating space for 3,000 is scheduled for Friday evening. Participating in this program will be Ashland high school and Ashland college choirs, Miss Elizabeth Pastor, pianist; Miss Patti Mosher, soprano; Miss Mabel Zehner, organist.

The band shell and amphitheater are gifts of Mrs. Guy C. Myers in memory of her late husband, prominent Ashland industrialist.

Parish House Work Starts In Bucyrus

BUCYRUS — Workmen are laying the celocrete foundation, which employs lightweight acoustical blocks, at the new $135,000 parish house of St. Paul's Lutheran church here. Rev. M. P. Paetznick, pastor of the church, announced today.

The building, which will be 150 by 50 feet, is being erected on a lot adjoining the church's north side. Limestone will be used for the exterior walls and the building will be of reinforced concrete construction throughout, making it completely fireproof.

The building's plans include a large auditorium complete with stage for social gatherings, seven classrooms, a modern tile kitchen, dressing rooms and a ladies' lounge.

Construction of the building was made possible by John Q. Shunk, retired Bucyrus manufacturer and philanthropist, who donated $135,000 for the project. S. A. Schieber and Son, local contractors, are in charge of construction.

Nevada is known as the Sagebrush State and its official flower is the sagebrush.

Galion Council Overrides Veto, Accepts Stevens Plat

Action Over School Site Hits Mayor

Power Franchise Ruling Explained

By CATHERINE RORICK
N-J State Correspondent

GALION — City council last night passed the ordinance accepting the Wade Stevens plat which has been proposed for the new North Elementary school over Mayor H H Hartmann's veto The vote to override the veto was unanimous

The Stevens plat had been proposed by a North school committee as an alternate site over the Heise park site which had been selected by the Galion board of education.

The mayor had favored construction of a two-story building on the present site of the North school and had objected to the Stevens site because of the cost of installation of utilities on the new division

City Solicitor George H Davies reported on Judge C U Ahl's findings in injunction against the franchise ordinance and council The franchise ordinance gave permission to the Ohio Public Service company to sell electric power to two Galion factories the Galion Iron Works and Manufacturing company and Central Ohio Steel Products company

The recent decision by Judge Ahl made the injunction permanent against the ordinance and also granted the right of referendum on the franchise This led to the introduction of an ordinance by Solicitor Davies to present the ordinance to the electors on Oct. 4, 1949, for a vote whether or not the ordinance should be adopted and go into effect.

The ordinance had its first reading It was explained that if the ordinance should be repealed there would be no need for the expense of a special election on it

PAGE FOUR — MANSFIELD OHIO, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 22 1949

According to the calendar, February is the shortest month—June only seems so.

A new one is to the effect that a husky boy declined a proffered lawn-mowing job when he was told that no power mower was available.

One scientist predicts that by 2149 the world will be so crowded there will be standing room only—so why worry about lack of parking space now?

Hopeful, But Not Optimistic

NOW that the Paris conference of foreign ministers of the Big Four has ended—on a semi-harmonious note—another period of "watchful waiting" seems to be in order as the future course of Russia continues obscure.

Trouble is that past performance has justified doubt as to Russia living up to any commitments, and the present agreement that the Berlin blockade-lifting is to be permanent cannot be depended upon

The test is expected to come within the next few days, for, if things work out in accordance with the agreement, normal communication—transport and trade—will be resumed between eastern and western Germany, leading to a much healthier situation.

Another partial accomplishment of the Paris conference is the move toward a peace treaty and establishment of the independence of Austria, but this will await further action.

The impression seems quite general that not much was really accomplished during the month-long conference, insofar as establishing friendly relations between Russia and the western powers is concerned, and the warning is given that this is no time for over-optimism or for a weakening of determination to maintain a strong front against any unreasonable demands or aggressive steps by Russia.

Progress Toward Lasting Peace

IF WAR can be averted in the next fifty years it might be averted for all time, said Trygve Lie, speaking before the fortieth annual Rotary International convention in New York.

The secretary-general of the United Nations declared that while the United Nations General Assembly is in session, no war of importance will be started. He stated that the Assembly's value lies in its giving the smaller nations a chance to act to balance the power of the larger ones.

Though the progress of the United Nations may seem at times to take the form of one step forward and two steps back, the very fact that it exists and functions in some manner is reason for hope.

It has taken the world thousands of years to reach the point where such a body could come into being Its tangible influence is great and concrete results of its work will appear in the fulness of time. The secretary-general's confidence in its potential power is comfortable to learn. It is important for every nation to see that it is not misplaced.

Plan To Help Young Veteran

LIGHTNING is no respecter of persons—or needs—else it would not have struck and destroyed the home of that young war veteran, Charles Hardy, near Ontario, just when he was looking forward hopefully to earning enough to meet payments and eventually have a debt-free home for his family.

His lay-off from industrial employment was a blow to his plans, as it has been to many others, but he found other employment and it was not until his new home was destroyed by fire that he realized the difficulty of his position.

Now residents of the village of Ontario have evidenced interest and friendliness by announcing intention to raise a fund to enable Mr. Hardy to make a new start toward a home, and this is a project that seems likely to have appeal far beyond the bounds of that community—one in which many people will feel impelled to help.

Time To Have Coal Bins Filled

DESPITE the extent to which natural gas and fuel oil have been substituted for coal in home heating, in all probability a majority of people in the Mansfield area will still be dependent on coal to heat their homes next winter.

The way in which coal supplies have been jockeyed by John L Lewis, with steadily increasing prices, has encouraged the rapid shift to other fuels, but the fact remains that much coal is still needed and the outlook for an uninterrupted supply is not good

It is therefore advisable for persons who foresee need for coal next winter to consult their dealers as to availability of supply and to place delivery orders as quickly as possible

Coal production was resumed Monday after a week of "inaction" but with the end of this week will come a two weeks vacation of miners, after which the "no contract, no work" edict of Lewis may bring further suspension of coal production. So it will be wise to have the coal bin filled while you can

Churchill, Master of Words

AS A WRITER you have to hand it to Winston Churchill

Everyone remembers his soul-stirring eloquence. "We shall fight on the landing-grounds, we shall fight in the fields, we shall fight in the streets, we shall fight in the hills. We shall never surrender"

But he is a master of the lighter touch as well. What other statesman would think of writing as he does in his current memoirs that when some good news came in, "I purred like six cats"?

According to Treasury Secretary Snyder the country is "basically sound"—which is strangely reminiscent of this season of the year in 1929

Washington Calling

College Finances Lag

By MARQUIS CHILDS

NEW HAVEN, Conn — The expensive ivy twines about the expensive Gothic towers and the campus has in its outward look the old serenity. But the serenity does not go very deep these days.

Whether it is the cloisters of the Ivy League or a struggling, fresh-water college, the process of higher education is being subjected to the same storms that are shaking the world outside The tremor that runs through the halls of learning is of earthquake intensity.

The immediate threat is political domination. It could mean an end to the right of free inquiry, a levelling down to the lowest common denominator. That is the spectre which haunts conscientious educators dedicated to the pursuit of knowledge in a free society.

The federal government is today pouring money into higher education in a volume heretofore undreamed of. A recent survey showed that nearly $3,500,000,000 is flowing from the federal treasury into the colleges and universities in a variety of programs financed by different agencies. By far the largest single amount, of course, is the two and a half billions provided by the Veterans Administration for former GI's.

The possible political strings that go with this aid are what make honest educators nervous. They are well aware that curbing freedom at the source is part of the plan of those who fear freedom

At the same time, the privately endowed shools are in trouble because of mounting costs and tax and inheritance laws which greatly reduce gifts and bequests Here at Yale they are looking for a new president who can go out and persuade the rich and the not-so-rich to contribute to a sadly diminished endowment

The same urgent need exists at Columbia University in New York According to his friends, that is one reason why Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has not been altogether happy in his role as Columbia's president. The trustees have been suggesting with increasing emphasis that it would be an excellent idea if President Eisenhower were to lead a nationwide fund-raising campaign.

* * *

Dwindling Revenues.

COLLEGE administrators realize that even a slight drop in the revenue from the stocks and bonds in their trust funds, with a recession, would put them in trouble That goes for Harvard, with a record $150,000,000, as well as for the small schools that dot the country, many of them with high standards of education and independence.

The heavily endowed colleges of the eastern seaboard have long held an enviable position at the top They have attracted the ablest teachers, both because they could pay high salaries and because they could give the individual scholar and scientist considerable leisure and a wide latitude of freedom.

This eminence has naturally stirred jealousies. That jealousy is a strong political motive in the attack on academic freedom which takes so many forms nowadays

Those in poorer states, where gifts and bequests to education are almost non-existent, would like to see a more equal distribution of learning. Thus southerners manage to overcome states rights prejudices to vote for federal aid to education, as in the bill recently passed by the Senate providing $300,000,000 for public schools through grants in aid to the states

If this could mean an improvement in regions where standards are low, without too great a risk of the kind of political control that means direct intervention in what is taught and how it shall be taught, then well and good

Desperate as the need is for new schools and better paid teachers, it will be well to look twice and then three times to be sure there are safe guards against political dictation.

To sacrifice the independence of the privately endowed school would be to lose a vital factor in the American system. The heads of these schools are acutely conscious of the hot breath of the witch-burner down their necks You get a feeling at times that they are prepared to do a little appeasing in order to prove that they are not too independent. After all, rich donors usually have pretty conservative views

The Nation Today

What It Really Means

By JAMES MARLOW

(Editor's Note: This is the first of several stories on President Truman's plans for reorganizing the government.)

* * *

WASHINGTON — President Truman now has sent seven plans to Congress for overhauling, or reorganizing, the government

And they're important although they're only the first in a series of plans he'll offer, some this year, some next year

Since the story of reorganizing the government is complicated, here is an ABC on what happened and what lies ahead. There are three main points:

The study and recommendations made by the Hoover Commission, the Reorganization Act passed by Congress the plans to be offered by Mr Truman

This government, with 2,100,000 employes, is the biggest business in the world but is less efficient than many, maybe most businesses.

It has grown as the population grew and the needs of the people increased Bureaus, agencies, and commissions shoot off in all directions

Since President Taft first tried it in 1912, a number of attempts have been made to "put the government's house in order" None was thorough

Two years ago Congress decided to do a real job of it It created a 12-man commission, headed by former President Hoover

This was non-partisan. The commission was composed of Democrats and Republicans. A Republican Congress created it. Mr. Truman blessed it.

* * *

Congress Must Approve.

ITS PURPOSE: To study the whole government and offer recommendations to make it run better and cheaper.

About 300 experts helped the commission look for sick spots. Early this year the recommendations began coming out in the form of reports

The commission produced 18 reports and 267 recommendations some major, some minor. The next move was up to Congress

Unless it gave the President power to put the recommendations into effect, or some of them they'd die on the vine

So last week Congress passed an act giving the President power to reorganize the executive branch of the government.

It didn't give him power to tamper with the other two branches: the legislative (Congress) or the judiciary (the courts). The Hoover Commission examined only the executive branch.

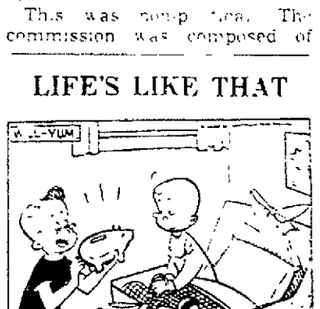
Mr Truman has signed the act into law It is not a blank check, leaving him free to do anything he wishes about the executive branch There's a reason Mr Truman For example

First he must offer his reorganization plans to Congress (He has offered the seven plans after signing the act into law.)

Then he must wait 60 days to see what Congress thinks. If Congress doesn't act within 60 days to kill the plan Mr Truman can go ahead with it

Under the Reorganization Act Mr Truman can abolish or shift agencies created by Congress But — he can't interfere with or take away any of the powers that belong to Congress

LIFE'S LIKE THAT



"They'll start one of these for you and then Pop'll start tapping it for bus fare."

As Others See It

It'll Be Different.

A next depression, say the experts, won't be at all like 1929, and this seems fair enough—changing the rules so that experience gives no undue advantage.—Kansas City Star

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Rumor of Hoover-Clark Feud Baseless

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON. — The 48-hour mystery over J. Edgar Hoover's resigning as head of the FBI got stirred up from two separate sources.

One was President Truman, who got highly indignant at the smearing of a lot of innocent bystanders when the FBI reports in the Judith Coplon case were published. Truman felt that unchecked rumors should not have been allowed to get into the FBI files, and for a while he was all for firing the efficient FBI chief.

The other source was J. Edgar Hoover's public relations man, Lou Nichols, a smart and likable Greek-American, formerly Nicholopolous, who, in his zeal to protect his boss, sometimes outsmarts himself.

It was Nichols who set in motion the rumor that Hoover was about to resign—as a backfire against Truman's intimation that it might be a good thing to have Hoover resign.

Nichols was busy as a bird dog dropping hints to newsmen about friction between Hoover and his chief, Attorney General Tom Clark, and one editorial in a local Washington newspaper followed Nichols' conversation almost verbatim.

Nichols is the same alert busybody who shuttled back and forth between the FBI and Capitol Hill last summer when it was a good bet the Republicans were going to win in November He seemed almost as much at home in the office of Congressman Parnell Thomas, chairman of the un-American activities committee, as the congressman himself. (Thomas is now under indictment in a kickback scandal.).

Nichols also was chummy with G. O. P. Senator Ferguson of Michigan, a bitter foe of the justice department. In fact, Lou was credited with slipping Ferguson the Elizabeth Bentley spy data, and was so active that some Capitol observers were unkind enough to say Lou was playing his cards to become chief of the FBI once the Republicans took office — though this observer has never detected anything but strict devotion to his FBI chief.

* * *

Clark and Hoover.

CONTRARY to reports of trouble between Hoover and Attorney General Clark, Hoover never sent a letter threatening resignation, and here is what actually happened between the two men:

Clark telephoned Hoover after Dr. Edward U. Condon of the bureau of standards had asked for an FBI apology. Jokingly, Clark called Hoover "Dr. Condon" Hoover laughed.

Clark then asked how many confidential agents he had lost as a result of making public the FBI reports in the Coplon case. Hoover said he had lost about 12, and that the one that was most important was inside the Russian embassy.

The Attorney General said he had been talking to acting secretary of state Webb, who said he was sure the Russians knew they were being watched.

Clark went on to say that he simply could not drop the Coplon case rather than produce the FBI reports because, if he did, every espionage agent in the United States would figure he had immunity. He would know the FBI could not produce its reports in court to prove the government's case.

Hoover then asked if the justice department couldn't take "a contempt" as in the Touhy case in Chicago. There, gangster Roger Touhy had demanded that certain FBI reports be produced in court, and the justice department had refused, even though Judge John Barnes threatened to hold the local U. S. attorney in contempt.

Clark replied that the Touhy case was different from the Coplon case in that Touhy was making an appeal and the burden of proof was on him. Therefore, all the justice department risked in taking "a contempt" was a $100 fine.

In the Coplon case, on the other hand, Clark continued, the justice department was the prosecutor, and if it was held in contempt the judge would not merely assess a $100 fine, he would dismiss the case.

Hoover said he guessed the attorney general was right. He added that publication of the FBI papers in court was now water over the dam, but he would be dead opposed to producing the "top secret" document.

Clark said he heartily agreed, and that if the judge ruled this report had to be published, then he would appeal to a higher court and if overruled there, then he would move to dismiss the case. (Since then, Judge Reeves has ruled that this top-secret document was not to be produced.)

The conversation was completely cordial throughout, as have been relations between Hoover and Clark ever since Clark became attorney general. While Hoover has sometimes differed with other attorneys general, he and Clark have been close friends ever since Clark was assistant attorney general in charge of the criminal division.

Assignment: America

It Was Different Then

By INEZ ROBB

NEW YORK—O mores, O tempores. When I was nineteen, it gave a young girl a bad reputation in the Boise valley to go around shooting men to whom she had not even been properly introduced.

Such things were frowned on in our cracker barrel set, the fore-runner of the country club by a good many years. If I had told Mama that I was minded to buy a gun and shoot the object of my unrequited affections, Mama would have known what to do.

Mama would have put me to bed, stuck a thermometer in my mouth and started a mess of sassafras tea on the back of the stove.

Grandma would have suggested a little willow tea, that being her name for a session with a switch in the wood shed And I can hear Papa now. Papa would have bellowed to Mama:

"Adah! If you can't manage that child, there's always the reform school." And Papa would have meant it, too. He wasn't a man to stand any nonsense about guns from growing girls.

Mama, Papa and Grandma, of course, had never heard anything about the terrible, crippling inhibitions that afflict children who are reared to be mannerly, law-abiding, God-fearing citizens. Neither, apparently, had anyone else in the valley.

Because I cannot remember any young lady, even a very flighty one, shooting strangers just to get the nervous tension out of her system. In fact, I will go right out on a limb and say that I do not recall any adolescent of either sex shooting, stabbing, bludgeoning or putting through the meat chopper any other human being.

The only murder cases I recall in the valley in my salad days involved persons of voting age None of the defendants still lisped and it had not yet become incumbent upon the sheriff to keep the jail supplied with building blocks and a sand pile.

Juvenile deliquency consisted mainly hanging around the pool hall, exceeding the speed limit, and swiping the Chic Sales on Halloween.

* * *

Some Recollections.

ONCE my cousin Frank, a DSC-er at Anzio and now a brassed-up officer in the American army of occupation in Germany, and I kidnapped the neighbor's persian cat, and gave it a checker-board hair cut. It took patience and ingenuity, and we got very little cooperation from the cat.

We also got a hiding from the old folks, who couldn't foresee that Frank would end up a hero and I a dignified lady reporter I doubt it would have made any difference if they had.

And then I remember the time we hid Uncle Thayer's wig. We put the snatch on it at Thanksgiving and placed it on the Christmas tree for him some weeks later.

Uncle Thayer was a popular bachelor and that was the height of the social season in the valley, but nothing happened to us because you can't very well whip children on Christmas unless you are Scrooge.

But that's the only time I think we ever got away without a rap

Our respective parents and Grandma loves me and my cousins. We were pampered and petted. But they stood just so much nonsense from us and then we stood — to eat off the mantel.

Those were the days when parenthood and baseball playing were not among the most dangerous callings known to man. When I was growing up, the occupational hazards of mother-or fatherhood did not include sudden and violent death at the hands of one's young

Now, as regularly as my morning coffee, the news reveals that some adolescent in a snit has dispatched his parents, his grandpa or an aged aunt who turned down the radio in the middle of "The Lone Ranger" or refused to grubstake him to the movies.

None of us young-uns would have dared raise our voices, much less a meat ax or a blunderbuss in the presence of our elders. In those days, Lloyd's of London was still willing to gamble that parents would live to enjoy their annuities.

And as for strangers! The laws of hospitality were still strong in the west when I was growing up. Papa might have forgiven me for dispatching him with an ice pick But if I had gunned a stranger Papa sure would have skinned me alive before turning me over to the sheriff!

'Invitation To Health'

By CALVIN A. BYERS

HERE'S a clear, simply written guide to exuberant health, by a doctor who supervises the work of 3000 physicians in making physical examinations for 30 life insurance companies' "Invitation to Health," by Harry J. Johnson, M D., F. A. C. P. (Prentice-Hall $2.95)

What is normal diet? Why fuss about vitamins? What is meant by "indigestion"? How can we avoid the "all-American complaint"—constipation"

The plague of the twentieth century is overweight. Losing weight is simple, but the method is not violent exercise, starvation, nor drugstore pills

"A satisfactory weight loss is two pounds each week, averaging 8 to 10 pounds each month. This rate is not so rapid that the body cannot adjust to it, nor is it so slow as not to accomplish the desired result in a reasonable time. With such an objective in mind, the diet can be reasonably generous and the subjective sense of well-being can be maintained . . . the reducing diets given here are perfectly balanced, etc."

The reducing diets follow. They include all the foods that are good. No fads, no medicines. Also, for those who need to gain weight, additions to the diet are suggested.

Diabetes has a short chapter. So does circulation and the heart. "Everyone has blood pressure". The "nervousness" that we hear about so often actually has nothing to do with nerves.

"Your skin is really much more than something to look at, to keep clean, and to love to touch. It is an organ of the body as important as lungs or heart. Excessive sun tan is just another example of a valuable health procedure carried to the point of abuse.

How choose a family doctor? What about "cults" and "faith healers"? Who is mentally sick?

In addition to answering all these questions, a good portion of the book consists of tables of food values.

This is the kind of book that every family should have, to read, discuss, and keep on the shelf for ready reference. It is now in its fourth printing.

When the plate was passed, Mr. Lamont dropped a hundred-dollar bill into it. When the preacher saw it, he sighed happily, and announced, "The sucker has been provided."

Senate OK's Voting Changes, House Approval Seen Today

Ohio Seeks Renovated Balloting

Bill Takes 'Kinks' Out of Machines

COLUMBUS — (UP) — A bill to take the kinks out of laws governing voting machines in Ohio went back to the Ohio House of Representatives today for approval of minor amendments.

The Senate approved the bill by a vote of 21-6 yesterday. The House, which passed the bill earlier by a large majority, was not expected to oppose the changes.

The bill covers such important changes in the present law such as keeping of poll lists, absentee ballots, recounts and preparation and preservation of ballots.

The bill provides for the following:

1. Poll lists need not be kept in non-regulation precincts where voting machines are used.

2. A voter may not occupy the machine for more than five minutes when others are waiting.

3. Machines normally may not be turned back to zero until after 60 days following an election. When special elections are to be held within 70 days following a regular election the machine may be zeroed only after the board of elections gives proper notice to the parties concerned and issues a certificate that the vote recorded on the machines has been recanvassed.

4. Red ink may be used to print any part of the ballot label except for the printing of candidate's names, party emblems or issues.

5. Ballots may carry a condensed text of questions, issues or constitutional amendments on the machines, provided the full text is posted in the polling place.

6. Return sheets shall be made in triplicate, one copy going to the board of elections, one to the clerk of courts and one posted on the outside of the polling place.

7. Both machine and paper balloting may be used.

Statehouse Gets Real 'Going-Over'

COLUMBUS — (INS) — Ohio's ancient gray statehouse will really get a working over by the Senate public works committee today.

Schwab Warns Against Dog Poisoning After Phone Call

An anonymous phone call stating someone was attempting to poison dogs in the Middle Park area, was received yesterday by Police Chief Jesse J. Schwab.

The chief pointed out the obvious danger of children getting hold of the poison.

He said any persons placing poison in an attempt to kill domestic animals is violating the law.

Section 13362 of the Ohio code states that administering poison to domestic animals is punishable by a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $200 or imprisonment of not more than 30 days, or both.

The law states "Whoever with intent to injure or kill such animals, maliciously administers poison to an animal, the property of another, or whoever, with such intent places any poisoned food about where it may be easily found and eaten by any such animal, either upon his own lands or the lands of another," are guilty of violation of the section.

'BOYS VILLAGE' USED AS DINNER PROGRAM TOPIC

The Rev. C. E. Kerr Guest Speaker at Meeting of Local Chapter of National Secretaries

"BOYS VILLAGE, SMITHVILLE, OHIO," was the topic of the talk given by the Rev. Clarence E. Kerr, founder and director of the town, at the regular dinner meeting of the Hill City chapter, National Secretaries association held last evening in the Mansfield-Leland hotel.

The guest speaker told the members that at the present time there is only room for fifteen boys at the home. By the end of this summer they hope to have twenty-five. There are two boys from Richland county at the home.

Vegetables For Dunking

At a recent buffet party perhaps the biggest culinary success was scored by dishes of raw vegetables all ready for dunking for which three different sauces were offered. It interested us to watch the menfolk going for the raw vegetables, since these are usually lumped in with the "rabbit food" department. But there they were dunking away and enjoying the fresh, crisp vegetables and raw vegetables. Sticks of raw celery and of cauliflower, curls of celery, rings of green pepper, pieces of fresh endive made a pretty and colorful picture.

The first dressing was just mayonnaise, the second dressing was mayonnaise mixed with chili sauce, the third consisted of mayonnaise blended with chopped chives and minced green pepper. Also on the buffet was a big platter of jumbo shrimps, each neatly speared with a toothpick, and, close at hand, there was a bowl of curry mayonnaise.

Shrimp Rolls add up to a good favorite, whether at the table or for a party. To serve 5, combine one c. medium white sauce (make with thin cream) with 1½c. (about ¾ lb.) cooked shrimp. Heat 6 rye rolls, scooping out some of the center, and fill with the creamed shrimp. If shrimp are cooked at home, cook with tsp. caraway seed for each lb. of shrimp, for a delicious flavor.

Pink and pretty is this French dressing that is sure to find favor. Rub salad bowl with a tiny garlic clove. Add ½ tsp. dry mustard, tbsp. confectioners sugar, ½ tsp. salt and a dash of tabasco; mix thoroughly. Add one-third cup salad oil and one c. tomato juice; shake well. Makes slightly over 1½ c. dressing.

Horoscope

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

For Thursday, June 23

THE established operations, possibly in new and experimental fields of invention, discovery, orginality and innovation, are destined to move forward with spectacular denouement, probably with some measure of recognition or acclaim in "the public eye." Faith, determination, diligence should touch high goals despite minor setbacks, delays or petty annoyance. Profit, promotion, distinction and also romance materialize.

For the Birthday

Those whose birthday it is, are assured a definite advancement in planning and objectives out-of-the-ordinary or conventional activities, in which ingenuity, invention, rare skills or audacious ventures, should gain weight despite minor setbacks, delays or other annoyance of trivial character, considering the magnitude and promise of the affair in hand. The denouement should materialize in some form of public honor or acclaim, and the element of romance in private life may likewise prove thrilling.

A child born on this day is destined for public honors, with exceptional talents or qualities fitting it for a life in the public eye. Romance and adventure are shown, despite petty frustrations

Chocolate Ice Cream Puffs

THERE'S ALWAYS AUDIBLE approval from youngsters and grownups alike when cream puffs are served. And cream puff shells made especially tempting with a filling of ice cream are a dessert that really goes places. The ice cream puffs pictured are a new variation of this favorite. The cream puff shells are flavored with chocolate and filled with cool mint ice cream. A spoonful of fudge sauce tops off this delicious treat. Here is the recipe:

CHOCOLATE MINT ICE CREAM PUFFS

¼ cup butter
½ cup boiling water
½ cup sifted all-purpose flour
¼ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon sugar
1 tablespoon cocoa
2 eggs, unbeaten
1 quart mint ice cream
Hot fudge sauce

Add butter to boiling water; heat until butter melts. Sift together flour, salt, sugar and cocoa; add to butter mixture, all at once, stirring thoroughly. Cook, stirring, until mixture leaves sides of pan. Remove and cool a minute. Add unbeaten eggs, one at a time, beating until smooth after each addition. Drop by heaping tablespoons on greased baking sheet, 2 inches apart, shaping with wet spoon into rounds. Bake in hot oven, 450 degrees F., 10 minutes; reduce heat to 350 degrees F. and bake 25 minutes longer, until lightly browned. Cool and cut off tops. Fill with peppermint ice cream and top with hot fudge sauce. Makes 6 medium puffs.

Appleseed Club Hears Byers

Mrs. Louis Hartman, Edgewood road, entertained members of the Johnny Appleseed Garden club Friday. Mrs. Tom Ford served as associate hostess.

There were twenty-five members and two guests, Mrs. James Platt of Mt. Vernon, and Mrs. Kay Grass of near London, England, present. A salad luncheon was served buffet style. The serving table was centered with an arrangement of delphinium.

Mrs. Platt and Mrs. John Morley poured. The usual business meeting was dispensed with to provide more time for the program. Calvin Byers was guest speaker. He gave an informal talk on nature in general and at the close of his address he answered questions.

The next meeting will be held June 24 at the home of Mrs. Charles Seigenthaler, Forest Hills road. A flower show for members only, will be held at this time.

Ladies Auxiliary To Serve Dinner

Plans were completed for the serving of a wedding dinner by members of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Eagles at their meeting in Eagles hall. Mrs. Robert Gettins is in charge of the kitchen committee. The new president, Mrs. Nellie Morrison, was in charge of the session.

A bake sale will be held August 6 at the Third street market. Prizes of the evening were awarded to Mrs. Roy Hartman and Mrs. Nellie Morrison.

The next session will be July at Eagles hall.

FRUIT SALAD DRESSING is quickly made by beating fruit juice from canned or fresh fruit into a 3-ounce package of cream cheese to make it the consistency of mayonnaise. If juice is very sweet add a few drops of lemon juice; if very tart, add a little sugar. Serve with jellied or fresh fruit salads.

It is not necessary to remove the skins of mushrooms that are fresh and in good condition. Just wash them well, slice off and discard the tough end of the stem if you like, and they'll be ready for cooking.

Government Spending Under Fire

Ferguson Compares Valuation, Cost

WASHINGTON — (UP) — Sen. Homer Ferguson, R., Mich., says a good way to get an idea of the cost of government is to compare federal spending figures with something closer home — such as the state in which you live.

By the Ferguson scale the $14,267,000,000 asked of Congress for next year's national defense spending is comparable to the assessed property value of two of our greatest states. They are Pennsylvania, $8,516,000,000 and Massachusetts, $5,965,000,000.

The $5,495,000,000 sought for the veterans' administration is about equal to the assessed valuation of Texas, $5,629,000,000.

President Truman estimated international affairs spending and finance in the next fiscal year at $6,708,000,000, which is about equal to the assessed value of Mr. Truman's Missouri, $4,040,000,000, and his neighbor, Kansas, $3,174,000,000.

Welfare, health and security spending for fiscal 1950 is estimated at $2,357,000,000 which compares with the assessed value of Iowa, $2,501,000,000.

Rep. Daniel A. Reed, R., N. Y., said five states would bear the major burden of Mr. Truman's spending program. He listed them with their estimated direct and indirect federal tax contributions, as follows:

California $3,486,000,000; Illinois 3,301,000,000; New York 6,486,000,000.; Ohio 2,442,000,000; Pennsylvania 3,251,000,000.

What Reed was driving at as a spokesman for the wealthier states was more emphatically stated by the Ohio Chamber of Commerce. The chamber has circulated a breakdown for Ohio of the spending program under a proposed federal subsidy to education.

"It is our belief that once this unwise principle, of federal funds for education, is established," the Chamber said, "under pressure the subsidy will be increased into billions by future congresses."

The Ohio chamber holds that the education subsidy is no bargain for Ohio taxpayers. In a county-by-county breakdown, the chamber reports that Ohio would receive a total of $7,320,000, of the subsidy sum against an estimated cost of the program to Ohio taxpayers of $15,629,000.

Young Deep Sea Divers Near Success In Search For Gold

POINT PLEASANT, N. J. — (UP) — Two young deep sea divers saw a 13-year dream of finding $250,000 in sunken gold treasure coming true today.

Floyd Sharp jr., 31, and William Conway, 25, reported they had found the 51-year-old wreck of the liner S. S. Delaware, believed to have a quarter of a million dollars in gold aboard, and have begun exploring it.

"We've found some signs of the gold aboard," Conway said. "But we'll have more to say about that sometime next week."

He refused to elaborate.

Sharp explained that his interest in the wreck began in 1936, at the time Simon Lake, the late inventor of the submarine, led an expedition to recover the treasure, but ran out of funds before locating it.

BURGLAR GETS CREAM

TACOMA, Wash. —(UP)—A hungry burglar invaded the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clark G. Seabloom in their absence. When the Seablooms returned they found the house ransacked, but nothing gone. Then when they got the milk off the back porch they found the cream of the four bottles missing.

Sight Sub Off Florida

MIAMI, Fla. — (AP) — The coast guard said yesterday an unidentified submarine had been reported off the south Florida coast.

Three navy privateers from the hurricane - hunting squadron in Miami searched an area roughly off Cocoa and Melbourne during the night without finding a trace of the craft.

Then the coast guard said the case had been listed as "classified" and no further information could be obtained here.

Comdr. O D. Weed, said coast guard headquarters in Washington restricted the case on orders from the navy.

Lt. Comdr. Leonard Culjat, executive officer of navy patrol squadron VP 23, said his planes were turning in hourly radio reports that "all's well."

Comdr. R. C. Knowles, USN, skipper of the squadron, said the submarine first was sighted by a coast guardsman from the beach near Miami. He said he could not reveal the man's name.

Syracuse Police Claim New Record

SYRACUSE, N. Y. — (INS) —The county sheriff's office in Syracuse figures it can claim today a national record for alertness.

Two sheriff's men stopped a truck being driven without license plates. The woman driver identified herself as Mrs. Margaret Vickery, 20 of Edgar, Neb.

She said she had driven the truck from California, and didn't have an operator's license either.

Camel Corps Traps Smugglers

Egyptians Launch 'All-Out War' On Dope Runners

By HARRY WOLF

ALEXANDRIA, EGYPT — (AP) — Egypt has declared total war on the wily smugglers who slip an estimated two million pounds of narcotics across her borders annually.

This huge quantity is the yield of about 25,000 acres planted in opium and hashish in Syria, Lebanon and Transjordan, says General Monsef Pasha, coast guard commander.

Every province of these neighboring Arab states has its own factory where the drugs are prepared in blocks, stamped with a trademark and shipped here, he asserts.

Cultivation and trade of drugs is forbidden by law in Syria and Lebanon. Monsef Pasha recently urged the Arab league to enforce the law in both countries.

Meanwhile, coast guards and land frontier guards find a witty enemy in the smugglers.

Drugs are brought to Egypt by sea and land routes.

Large scale smugglers prefer waterways. Well organized gangs send agents to producing countries to place their orders. The dope is loaded in small boats or concealed among other goods aboard regular cargo ships.

The small craft head for desert beaches where the narcotics are quietly unloaded. Sometimes they run right into a trap prepared by coast guardsmen. Gun battles are not unusual.

Egypt's land frontiers —mainly deserts — are guarded by a colorful camel corps.

These "Mounties of the Middle East" are picked men, thoroughly trained for the job. They ride fast camels which can go for days without food or water.

Land smugglers usually travel by caravan. Their only hope is to slip their loaded camels through the camel corps men unseen. When sighted, they drop the dope and run. Most of the time when that happens they are caught.

Other caravans cross the Suez canal and pretend to be nomads or pilgrims back from Mecca. The other day a customs inspector did not like the behavior of a couple of camels. He ordered them slaughtered.

In the animals' stomachs investigators found several pounds of hashish packed in waterproof envelopes.

Heavy penalties for drug smugglers and addicts, plus the intensive work of the authorities have sent dope prices soaring. Some are 500 Egyptian pounds ($2,000 U. S.) a kilo (2.2 pounds) for the consumer.

The government is happy about the high prices. Now narcotics are out of reach of the lower classes. Despite the huge quantities still smuggled into the country, the authorities are hopeful that the day is not far distant when the ancient evil of drug addiction in Egypt will be wiped out altogether.

Sludge From Disposal Plant Blamed For Deaths of Fish

COLUMBUS — (AP) — The Ohio Conservation department agreed yesterday that sludge from a disposal plant was responsible for the death last week-end of some 1500 fish in the Scioto river near Chillicothe.

Warden L. Clark Schilder of the federal reformatory of Chillicothe said the "antiquated and inadequate" disposal plant serving 1500 at the reformatory and 3000 at the veterans hospital on the site of Camp Sherman of World War I, was responsible for the stream pollution.

Tom Gallagher, chief of pollution control for the Conservation division, concurred in the warden's findings. Gallagher said the disposal plant was condemned a year ago by the U. S. Public Health service, but had continued in operation.

Gallagher said "a very wild guess would be that 1500 fish were killed." He said the loss was relatively minor because the river was high and running rapidly.

He said the disposal plant was "a potential trouble spot for the remainder of the summer when the temperature is higher and the river stage lower." Gallagher said the fish suffocated because of lack of oxygen.

Warden Schilder said he had been trying to obtain an appropriation for construction of a new disposal plant, but had been unsuccessful. Gallagher said the division of conservation would help the warden in any way possible to remedy the situation."

Gallagher also said the state, under the law, could file an injunction against the government to halt pollution because of the disposal plant, and could file a claim for the fish killed. He said nothing definite had been decided along those lines, however pending a conference with the state attorney general.

CCC Moves To Slow Corn Sale

Extends Loans On 1948 Crop

In an effort to slow down movement of corn off the farms and into market the federal government is extending its loans to farmers on the 1948 crop corn to July 31 1950 Charles W Stickney state chairman of the Production and Marketing Administration committee announced today

The loans were originally to become due on Sept 1 1949

Stickney also advised Richland county farmers that they may keep under loan until July 31, 1950 corn covered the government purchase agreements

Previously the Commodity Credit corporation had agreed to buy any quantity of 1948 corn up to full amount of the purchase agreement within 30 days

Now producers may sell to CCC or keep the corn and put it under loan by Oct 31 at the 1948 rates

Farmers who do not have price support protection on 1948 corn still have until June 30 to apply for either loans or purchase agreements at the Triple A office

Farmers who extend their loans or put purchase agreement corn under loan will be entitled to a storage payment of 10 cents a bushel for the extended period if the corn is delivered to the CCC at maturity of the loan Stickney said

To date 56 1b1 bushels of 1948 corn are under the loan in the country and 42 190 bushels are under purchase agreement Guy L Taylor county Triple A chairman reported

McGrew Advises Dairy Farmers To Plant Sudan Grass In June

County Agent C N McGrew has sent a letter to the 400 dairymen in the Richland county Dairy Herd Improvement program advising them to plant Sudan grass for the cattle during the summer months

He warned that pastures soon will be off and with the usual decline in milk production On many farms cows will be exercising more in search of good pasture

McGrew said that contrary to past opinion the slump is not the result of heat and flies, but of lowered pasture quality He said it is lack of adequate quantity of palatable feed and lack of good water and shade for the cows that curbs production

He said that the best pasture crop that can be planted for July and August when shortages occur is Sudan gress Sudan grass should be sown in June after the soil is thoughly warm It may be pastured after it is 15 to 24 inches tall

The bumblebee is used as the model for efficient weight an estimated quarter of an ounce

CCC Moves To Slow Corn Sale

Extends Loans On 1948 Crop

In an effort to slow down movement of corn off the farms and into market the federal government is extending its loans to farmers on the 1948 crop corn to July 31, 1950 Charles W. Stickney state chairman of the Production and Marketing Administration committee announced today.

The loans were originally to become due on Sept. 1 1949.

Stickney also advised Richland county farmers that they may keep under loan until July 31, 1950 corn covered the government purchase agreements.

Farmers who do not have price support protection on 1948 corn still have until June 30 to apply for either loans or purchase agreements at the Triple-A office.

Farmers who extend their loans or put purchase agreement corn under loan will be entitled to a storage payment of 10 cents a bushel for the extended period if the corn is delivered to the CCC at maturity of the loan, Stickney said.

To date 56,151 bushels of 1948 corn are under the loan in the country and 12,190 bushels are under purchase agreement Guy L. Taylor, county Triple-A chairman, reported.

The timarau, related to the water buffalo, is the Philippines' largest native mamal.

M'Grew Advises Dairy Farmers To Plant Sudan Grass In June

County Agent C. N. McGrew has sent a letter to the 450 dairymen in the Richland county Dairy Herd Improvement program advising them to plant Sudan grass for their cattle during the summer months.

He warned that mid-summer is not far off and with it the usual decline in milk production. On many farms cows will be exercising more in search of good pasture.

McGrew said that contrary to "past opinion" the slump is not the result of heat and flies, but of lowered pasture quality. He said it is lack of adequate quantity of palatable feed, and lack of good water and shade for the cows that curbs production.

He said that the best pasture crop that can be planted for July and August, when shortages occur, is Sudan gress. Sudan grass should be sown in June after the soil is thoroughly warm. It may be pastured after it is 18 to 24 inches tall.

The brain cells used in a single mental effort weigh an estimated quarter of an ounce.

Cows End Milk Test

Two Richland county cows have completed production tests supervised by Ohio State university in cooperation with the Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

A registered Holstein-Fresian cow owned by W. B. Cockley, Lexington, has completed a 351-day production test of 734 pounds of butterfat and 21,513 pounds of milk in the Herd Improvement Registry test.

The cow, Willeben Royal Ambassador, was milked twice daily and was 11 years and one month old when she began her test period.

The other cow, Mansfield Lady Ona Ormsby, owned by the Ohio State reformatory, has completed a 365-day production test of 582 pounds of butterfat and 16,076 pounds of milk made in the herd improvement registry test.

This cow was milked twice daily and was nine years and eight months old when she began the test period.

Arab Prince Sets Sights On Throne

Would Rule Former Italian Colony

CAIRO — (AP) — A hard-bitten Arab prince is riding out of the political desert toward a North African throne and crown.

Emir (Prince) Sayyed Idris El Senussi, at 61, seems almost certain to become a king.

His probable realm is Cyrenaica. This former Italian colony is squeezed between Egypt and Tripolitania. Britain's 8th Army conquered its 300,000 square miles, most of it desert waste. Six years later British troops occupy Cyrenaica because the U. N. can't agree over its future.

Sir Sayyed — he was knighted by the British for wartime loyalty — may even end up with a vaster domain. A move is afoot to make him king of the united Libia, including Cyrenaica, British - occupied Tripolitania and the French - occupied desert oasis of Fezzan.

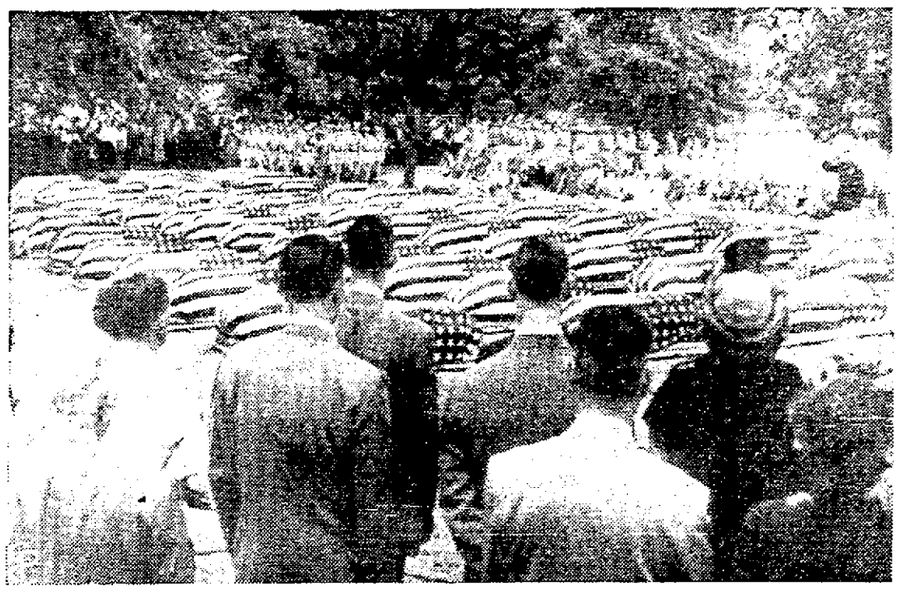
Libia's 1,000,000 Arabs and Berbers threatened to fight anyone who tries to hand them back to Italy. They seem agreed in favor of a united Libia with Sir Sayyed as king. Whether they get their wish peacefully in a world of international power politics is the question. Egypt and the Arab states are backing them.

Already Britain has recognized Emir Senussi as head of a British - sponsored Cyrenaican government with responsibility over internal affairs.

The pro-British Emir went further. He made a speech saying he considered Cryenaica free and adding that he wanted a united Libia.

When the second world war broke out, the Emir Senussi, still in Egypt, offered to raise Libian volunteer battalions to fight with the British in North Africa. Britain accepted eagerly. His troops fought to Tobruk and elsewhere. Foreign minister Anthony Eden in 1942 publicly thanked him for his aid.

The Emir's next step will be a trip to London to discuss final arrangements with Britain on Cyrenaica's future. He is expected to press — with Arab League support — for a united Libia instead of a self-governing Cyrenaica.



MASS FUNERAL—Unidentified remains of 250 servicemen killed Jan. 29, 1945, in a ship off Guadalcanal in the Pacific Solomon islands, are committed to graves in Arlington National cemetery, Washington, in a mass ceremony. The men died when the U. S. Coast Guard-manned munitions ship USS Serpens exploded while loading. Blast was not result of enemy action.

Certain Erie Beaches Unfit For Swimming, Say Officials

Swimmers using beaches between Painesville and Cleveland today were being warned they are doing so at their own risk, by Lake County Health Commissioner Dr. W. H. Willis, following a survey of 15 places along Lake Erie in that vicinity.

He revealed that bacteria count at the surveyed places made the water unsafe for swimming.

However, a News-Journal telephone call to health officials in Erie county, in which Sandusky and many of the beaches used by Mansfield vacationists are located, revealed that much the same situation exists in that locality.

While officials of the Erie County Health department refused to permit their names used for publication, they said a check was made a few weeks ago by the Ohio State Department of Health, which revealed that sewage was being poured into Sandusky Bay at an alarming rate.

The spokesman for the department said that "he could see no cause for excitement on the issue as it has existed for a number of years."

"In spite of the fact that Sandusky Bay is polluted', people still insist upon swimming there", he said.

He stated that a complete report on the State Health department's findings was published in newspapers at the close of the inspection, "but people are still swimming there in spite of the health threat."

When asked if the sewage in Sandusky Bay would contaminate water in nearby resorts he replied "many of the beaches are located on Sandusky Bay, aren't they?"

Dr. Willis in his report on conditions in Lake county revealed that a bacteria count over 100 is not safe, and the lowest court of the 15 swimming places surveyed was 500 at Mentor Harbor Yacht club, while the highest was at Tuttle Park in Madison county, with a count of 57,000.

About 250,000 persons are employed in the processing and delivering of dairy products.

Woman, Crippled Son Set Out On Lengthy Wheelbarrow Trip

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — (AP) — Mrs. Julia Roka St. Clair started pushing her young son toward Detroit in a wheelbarrow yesterday at his request and because she thought it would be fun.

Mrs. St. Clair, 48, a former actress and Miss Hungary of Europe in 1918, is a tourist court housekeeper.

Her son, Adolphius, 7, was born crippled. Since her separation from her husband she has devoted her time to making the boy happy.

After a recent attack of measles, he said he thought a wheelbarrow ride would be nice, and she decided to push him to Detroit for a family reunion.

Someone offered to fix the barrow with rear wheels so it would be easier pushing.

"Oh, no," she said quickly. "It wouldn't be a wheelbarrow ride, then."

They expect to make the trip of nearly 1,000 miles in a month. Adolphius will walk as much as he can, ride the rest of the way.

A canvas shelter has been rigged in case of rain. After publication of a story Saturday about the trip, Mrs. St. Clair has received offers of shelter all along the way.

Siren, Monument Keep Memory of War Alive In Tiny French Town

MEMORIES OF EUROPE REVISITED:

There was an old German selling flowers in front of the press camp in Frankfort. He held a rose in his mouth while making change for a customer.

"Ten years ago," said someone, "they took the bit in their teeth. Now look — it's flowers."

HOW TO LOSE friends and alienate allies department:

It happened after midnight at the Savoy in London. It was one of those international gatherings at which people would rather say something brittle and clever than something true.

They were deep in scotch and their own frustrations, and talking about things they didn't know—just to get in the knife blade and hurt each other.

"You wouldn't have had an airforce without our Rolls Royce engine," said the Englishwoman. "You Americans are the greatest warmongers in the world."

"No, you British are," said an American.

"Who are the greatest warmongers—we or the Americans?" asked the Englishwoman, turning to a friend.

"The Americans, of course," murmured her friend.

"You're just mad," said the American, "because you don't have anything left to warmonger with."

Wonder what the soldiers in the allied cemeteries would say to either of them?

★

There is one French town above all others that symbolizes war to hundreds of thousands of American troops. It is St. Lo, where Hitler's western wall in Normandy was finally breached.

So badly was the town battered from ground and air that there was talk of leaving it, ruined and empty, as an eternal monument of the war — and the price of war.

But the people of St. Lo wanted to come home, and they did. Helped by American generosity, they have made an astonishing recovery. Most of the rubble has been cleared. Entire sections have been rebuilt.

We stood in a churchyard there one Sunday recently — a group of former war correspondents — before a bronze bust erected to the memory of Maj. Thomas Howie, the "Major of St. Lo."

Howie had wanted to be the first man into the town. After he fell in action, troops of the 29th infantry division carried out his wish. They took his flag-draped body along with the entering task force, and laid it in honor by the church.

As we stood there reminiscing an eerie wail split the air — the scream of an air raid siren. Instinctively we started to duck for a ditch. Then, sheeplishly, we realized the siren was only signalling the noon hour.

But as long as it sounds — and the monument to Major Howie stands — the people of St. Lo will remember the war every day.

Eulogizes Character Of Attorney

Rites Held For Former Mayor

"The character of William Voegele was marked with those rugged qualities which were possessed by our forefathers, the men who made America great". Rev. Charles F. Sheriff, pastor of St. Matthew's Evangelical Lutheran church, told the friends and relatives who attended funeral services for the former Mansfield ex-mayor, attorney and business leader in Jones Memorial Tuesday afternoon.

"He possessed a fine personality, and his excellent flow of language, his persuasive powers of speech, together with his great storehouse of knowledge made him able to command the attention of people", Rev. Sheriff said.

His text was taken from the 14th Chapter of John, "Let not your heart be troubled, in my Father's House are many mansions".

Rev. Sheriff described Mr. Voegele as an unselfish person, who believed in others and was always ready to help them; a family man, who loved his family, and a man who despised bigotry and narrowness in men, hated hypocrisies, and was above all, a man of faith.

Close friends and business associates served as active pallbearers. They were P. J. Mayer, Avery C. Hand, jr., Sherman A. Wentz, Judge Herbert H. Schettler, Marion D. Ward, jr., Sam V. Fox and John J. Charles, all of Mansfield, and Dr. G. B. Robinson, of Mt. Gilead.

The body was placed in the mausoleum at Mansfield cemetery.

Employment Off Third

One out of every three persons working in Mansfield in January has been laid off, according to a report released today by C. W. Handley, Ohio State Employment service manager.

Handley forecasts 1,400 more lay-offs by the end of this month. He said one major industry expects to account for most of the reductions, with other industries foreseeing few significant changes.

The 6,750 persons who lost their jobs since January in the 38 major establishments surveyed were mostly from the electrical - machinery industry.

Principal reasons given by manufacturers for the layoffs were lack of orders.

On the other side of the picture the report shows that seasonal spurts in construction and agriculture this summer will help offset some of the losses in employment. In May there were 363 openings for work through the local employment office, over 100 more than during March. Most of the increase is seasonal, however, Handley said.

Trees Damaged

Sheriff's deputies were called to South Indiana avenue Tuesday evening by a man who reported neighbor's children were damaging trees on his property. The mother of the youths agreed to keep the children out of the neighbor's yard, deputies said.

Mastersinger Season Ends

Party Climaxes Final Concert

The Mastersingers climaxed their highly successful June concerts with a buffet dinner and party last evening at the Sky Club, with Harry Cooplin, of Painesville, humorist and lecturer, as the guest speaker.

Having performed before a combined audience of 1,800 for the two concerts, chorus members, their wives and guests, making up a party of 152, relaxed and had an enjoyable time.

Cooplin, who received an humourous introduction from Dr. Frank A. Hoffman, manager of the chorus, told the group they could become very effective "home town boosters". He quoted Abraham Lincoln saying, "I like a man who is proud of his community and I love a man whose community is proud of him". The speaker said Mansfield had every right to be proud of its Mastersingers.

Chorus member Howard N. Reilly served as master of ceremonies. He introduced officers of the group and guests. Among the guests were Mayor and Mrs. Roy W. Vaughn, Fritz Krueger, guest soloist for the concerts and Mrs. Krueger, Rev. and Mrs. Carveth P. Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. Dimon Herring.

A. LeMoine Derr, director of the group, commended Dr. Hoffman, C. H. Platt, Harold E. Huber and H. E. Young, "for the countless hours they contributed to make these concerts a success."

Platt told the group that tentative arrangments were being made for a late summer concert. If these plans do not materialize, he said, there will be another concert early in the fall.

Unit Begins Deactivation

The deactivation of Mansfield's 321st Bombardment U. S. Air Force reserve is underway today as Brig. Gen. Robert A. Nagle announced that the Cleveland Air Force base will become the center of all Air Force activitics for 60 northern Ohio counties.

Nagle said that as of July 1, the 12th Air Division, bombardment (light), will be deactivated and the 433 troop carrier wing activated.

Along with the Mansfield group satellite air bases at Akron, Columbus, and Toledo are being discontinued.

The bomb group came to Mansfield in July, 1947, under the command of Lt. Col. Robert E Durkee.

Reservists from the former satellite bases will train in Cleveland which will be one of the 25 wings located throughout the nation.

Boy Cyclist Struck By Car

Robert Morris, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Morris, 583 Coleman road, received bruises of the head, shoulder and knee early Tuesday afternoon when he fell from his bycycle and struck the back of a passing car on Highland avenue, police said.

The car was driven by John C. Kurry, 382 Marion avenue, according to police reports.

SPORTS WRITER SUCCUMBS

SAN FRANCISCO — Don W. Hutchinson, 64, widely-known sports writer, died yesterday.

Mansfielder Elected To Post, Girl Loses

James N. Geiger, 458 Parkview street, is serving as state auditor of the Buckeye Boys' State at Ohio Wesleyan university in Delaware.

Election of Geiger brought him the highest office ever achieved by a Mansfielder at Boys' State.

The 870 boys went to the polls Monday to pick their "state" officials, following the convention style of nominations in progress Sunday. The mock state government swung into action yesterday.

Activities are to occupy the full week for the Ohio youths.

The American Legion sponsors the 10-day workshop in which the boys organize, elect and operate their own mock governments.

Three other Mansfield candidates were on the losing side. They were Robert O. Ward, 569 Heineman boulevard, candidate for attorney general; and Robert H. Rice, 461 Lexington avenue, and Charles G. Young, 659 Manchester road, candidate for the posts of Chief Justice of the Supreme court.

James Hassler of Shelby is one of the three county auditors and Gerald Hatcher of Bucyrus is a county commissioner in the Boys' State local government set-up.

Mary Jo Hunter, 488 Clifton boulevard, the Realist party candidate for governor of Girls' State, lost yesterday to 16-year-old Joan Rankin of Cincinnati. The Rankin girl was the Idealist party candidate.

Results of the voting were not announced, but observers at Girls' State at Capital University, Columbus, said the Cincinnati girl apparently won on the basis of her personality and campaigning ability.

The governor-elect, will be sworn in by Chief Justice Carl V. Weygandt of the Ohio Supreme court. Ceremonies will be held at Capital university.

Cabinet members of the new governor are Ann Adele Mirandi, 16, of Springfield, Lieutenant Governor; Saundra Sue Glass of Columbus, Secretary of State; Jacquelyn Laidlaw of Avon Lake, Auditor; Gloria Powers of Ashley, Treasurer; and Jo Ann Brouse of Eaton, Attorney General.

Lt. Gov. George D. Nye will make the inaugural address tonight.

Lions Honor Fathers, Sons

The Mansfield Lions club will hold a Father - Son program at the Mansfield - Leland hotel tonight at 6:30. Each father is to bring his own son or a borrowed one.

Speaker for the evening will be Homer Bigbee, president of the Farmers bank of Bellville.

Glenn Williamson, program chairman, is keeping the rest of the program as a secret for the boys.

Mansfield club officers will be installed July 13.

Final figures of the profits from the Speas dance revue are not yet available, but Peter J. Mayer, club treasurer, said they will be about $300.

Reports Tool Theft

Reports of two thefts in Mansfield were made to Mansfield police last night and today.

Mrs. D. D. Morrison, 26 North Benton street, reported the theft last night of a breakfast table, valued at $25, one half gallon of paint and a washtub full of rubbish from the south side of her home.

According to Mrs. Morrison, occupants of the apartment above heard a noise outside the house shortly after dark. When the neighbor called out the window, a man told her he had a call to come to the house and clean up some trash. When Mrs. Morrison returned home she reported the items missing.

This morning Peter H Jordan, 503 Oakenwaldt avenue, told police tools valued at $6 were stolen from his car sometime last night.

THANKFUL—

Members of the Walter Lee Crisp family are expressing their thanks to the people of Mansfield for their assistance in furnishing their new apartment on Lenox avenue and Springmill street. The Crisp home, 654 Fairfax avenue, was destroyed by fire June 15. Lt. Maj. Richard L. Gutterman and the Volunteers of America have helped in collecting the furniture consisting of beds, clothing, chinaware, silver, living room suite, a gas range and groceries.

HE KEPT COOL—

Perhaps the coolest person in Mansfield yesterday was the little tow-year-old on Glessner avenue who fled down the sidewalk—in the nude. Close on his heels with a towel came a woman, evidently his mother. A washtub and spurting garden hose in the lawn of a nearby house gave mute evidence as to why the youngster was staging a Lady Godiva act without a horse.

★

BUSINESS WOMEN —

Two Helen avenue youngsters have decided to go after the sidewalk lemonade stand business in a new way. While most of their young competitors are content with merely plying passing pedestrians to buy their wares at one cent a glass, these enterprising girls have instituted "curb service." As motorists drive down the street the girls yell "curb service" from behind their orange crate stand. No fiscal report has as yet been turned in, but casual observers say business is good.

Banker Gets Billfold Back

Tuesday Eugene M. Fast, vice president of the Canton National bank in Canton, lost his billfold.

A short time later Edward Evans, 11 East First street, took the purse to the Mansfield Police department and reported he had found it near the Mansfield-Leland hotel.

Police contacted Fast at the hotel and the billfold, containing one dollar and personal papers was returned to the owner.

Larry Olson, 423 South Diamond street, a collector for the M. O'Neil company, wasn't as lucky, however. He told police he lost a billfold containing $213 in cash and checks and personal papers in the city Tuesday.

Man Bound Over For Non-Support

Irlos Walker, of Bellville, R. D. 1, was held for the grand jury under $500 bond when he appeared in municipal court today on a charge of failure to support a minor child.

He was arrested by sheriff's deputies today on a warrant signed by Ruth Knowlton, of Bellville. The affidavit stated Walker failed to support a 16-month-old child.

Senate Passes Measures

Provide Water, Sewer Finances

Two measures which would permit such areas as Roseland, Coolridge Heights, Lincoln Heights and outlying districts in the Mansfield vicinity to construct and operate their waterworks and sewage disposal plants are before Governor Frank J. Lausche today.

At present these areas have no means of providing water and sewer systems for themselves unless they incorporate or are taken into the city of Mansfield.

The House-approved bills were passed by a unanimous vote in the Ohio Senate yesterday.

One bill allows counties to issue revenue bonds to finance water, sewer or garbage collection projects. The bonds would be paid off from income derived from any of the services and would be a debt only of the agency involved.

Bonds could be issued beyond the limit of bonded indebtedness if necessary and other county taxes would not be used for payment.

The companion bill permits service charges to be considered as liens on property served. This means unpaid water bills and the like would accrue against property holders and could be collected in the same way as back taxes.

The Senate also passed and sent to the governor for signature a bill to permit local subdivisions to join operations of sewage, drainage and waterworks programs. The measure also allows the joint districts to issue bonds to finance any such projects.

County Home Hiker, 83, Gets Back To His Quarters

Elmer Ditch, the 83-year-old resident of the Richland County home, was back at the home today after a two-day "walking tour" of Ashland and Mansfield.

The aged man walked into the Ashland police department at 6 p. m. Monday seeking transportation back to Mansfield. Ashland county Sheriff M. F. Rickenbrod brought him back and left him out of the car about 8:30 p. m. at Central park, unaware of the fact that he lived at the county home.

From that time until Tuesday evening, Ditch visited around Mansfield until the proprietor of a cafe who knew him called officials at the county home and informed them of his whereabouts.

Deputies in the sheriff's office took the man back to the home last night. Two hours later, his absence was reported again, and shortly thereafter, two women brought the aged man back to the home in their car. They had found him "walking" toward Mansfield.

'Pappy' Walcott Battles Charles for Title

Publinx Program Released

AKRON — Official program for the Ohio Public Links golf championship at Breathnach Country club this week end was announced today by W. F. Bebout, tournament manager.

Starting times for the first day's play were posted along with plans for the annual state Public Links banquet Friday night.

A pro-amateur best-ball will be played Thursday to acquaint contestants with the course and the tournament itself will start at 6:30 a. m. Friday, Mansfield time. Golfers will play in foursomes and will start off of both the first and tenth tees so that all will have the same weather conditions. All should be trying out their putters by 7:30.

Mansfield's three entrants—Pete Thomas, Bernie Mathias, and Ted Etzel all have the later starting times. Thoma is scheduled to go off the tenth tee at 7:06 and Etzel at 7:12. Mathias tees off No. 1 at 7:12.

The order will be reversed in the afternoon with the one who started off the tenth tee in the morning getting the first tee for their final 18-hole jaunt. Mathias is the only Mansfielder entered in the pro-amateur.

Eighty golfers in all play the 36 holes Friday with the top 15 and defending champion Val Chiaverini entering match play Saturday morning.

The match play continues through Sunday afternoon, all over the 18-hole route, and Chiaverini is expecting tough opposition.

Among the hot-shots in the field are former champion Barney Hunt of Columbus; Jim Caspio of Cleveland, a national open qualifier; Don Shock of Dayton, former state high school great; Nick Ogrizovich of Steubenville, the national Serbian champion; Ed Koski of Steubenville, 1947 national Polish champ and runnerup in 1948; and John Nowack, Cleveland's city king.

The four-day schedule, Thursday through Sunday, calls for a 126-hole grind—one of the toughest in tournament golf. For each of three straight days 36 holes are scheduled.

Fun is on tap Friday night at the annual banquet, with three mayors as speakers. Giving addresses will be Mayor Joseph W. Harding of Cuyahoga Falls, Mayor Charles E. Slusser of Akron, and Mayor James A. Rhodes of Columbus, national AAU president and head of the State Publinks association.

Paul E. Brown, general manager and coach of the Cleveland Browns, is a probable added starter on the speaking program, along with W. F. Bebout, the tournament manager.

Two toastmasters have been named for the banquet—Charley Burns of Akron, manager of the Breathnach club, and Fritz Howell of the Associated Press—both officers in the State Public Links association.

North Lake park won the other league game last night by defeating Spudnuts, 13-10, with a 19 hit attack. L. Miller and W. Lewis of North Lake hit home runs.

'Ez' Rates As Slight Favorite

By JACK CUDDY

CHICAGO — (UP) — The odds favoring Ezzard Charles slipped to 6½ to 5 today for his NBA-recognized heavyweight championship fight tonight with Jersey Joe Walcott, and bookmakers thought the price might be even money by gong-time.

A ton of money backing the ancient Walcott was pouring into the city as the time crept nigh for the 15-round bout at Comiskey park. Too, Charles showed up very poorly in his final preparations before he seeks the title vacated by Joe Louis.

FIGURES BIG GATE

Louis is one of the promoters of the show, scheduled exactly 12 years from the night that he won the title from Jim Braddock. And today the Brown Bomber said the bout would be a financial success—that the forecast of cool, dry weather would produce a $300,000 gate.

Charles spent the night at a downtown hotel after driving in from his camp near Kankakee, Ill. Walcott waited until today to come in from his training quarters at Momence, Ill., in time for the weigh-in at the Chicago stadium. Charles, 27, expected to scale about 179 pounds. Walcott, 35, aimed at 195—approximately what he registered for his two title fights with Louis.

Charles was established the betting favorite because of his comparative youth. Despite the general respect for Walcott's bag of tricks and his punch that had floored Louis three times, betting men were cautious about backing a contender who was eight years older than Charles.

Were Walcott a few years younger, he would be favored at about 3-1 because of his weight advantage, his trickery, and his punch.

In tonight's contest between youth and experience, Walcott was expected to try for a quick knockout, although Ezzard had been belted out but once before in 69 professional fights. Lloyd Marshall turned the trick in 1943.

Meanwhile Charles was expected to concentrate on evading Walcott's over-handed right in the early rounds, and to keep sending "sneakers" into Walcott's body until the "old man" was worn down.

FATHER OF SIX

Charles was expected to have more stamina than Jersey Joe, father of six children. Charles has been campaigning actively during the past year, whereas Walcott hasn't fought since his second bout with Louis, last June 25.

The winner will NOT be recognized as champion by the New York boxing commission nor by the British boxing board of control. To gain undisputed world recognition, he must fight the winner of the London bout between Lee Savold and England's Bruce Woodcock, scheduled for Sept. 6.

Twice previously have heavyweights fought for a vacant crown. After Jim Jeffries retired in 1905, Marvin Hart and Jack Root fought for the title. Hart stopped Root in the 12th round. After Gene Tunney retired, Max Schmeling and Jack Sharkey fought for the dijem in 1930, and Schmeling won on a fourth-round foul.

Baseball Meet Finals Begin

WICHITA, Kas., — — The NCAA baseball finals open tonight with the Southern California Trojans holding the favorite's spot in a four-team field.

The four teams earned their way through regional tournament to emerge as the best clubs among 1,500 college nines throughout the nation.

In addition to Southern California the finalists include Wake Forest, the University of Texas and St. John's of Brooklyn, N. Y. Texas and St. John's will meet in the first game. Southern California and Wake Forest will play the second contest.

LIMBERS FOR STRIKE—Mayor Roy Vaughn begins his motion to throw the first "strike" at the official opening of the Hot Stove league junior baseball program last night at the Gorman-Rupp field. However, rain spoiled the opening twin bill as Colony Alleys was leading National Electric, 3 to 0, in the second inning when the first game had to be called. Both games will be played later under the lights.

Big Ten Wins 4th In Row From Coast Track Team

By ROY CUMMINGS

BERKELEY, Cal.—(INS)—The gap is narrowing for the western conference known as the "Big Ten."

The Big Ten proved it with points last night at Berkeley. Its all-star track team walloped the Pacific Coast league's best, 70 to 62, in the ninth annual dual meet between the two organizations.

The victory was the fourth straight for the Big Ten. Prior to that string of wins, the PCC captured five consecutive meets.

Glamour Boy Meets Evans, Here Saturday

Ronnie Etchison, one of the glamour boys of the wrestling profession, comes to Mansfield Saturday night to tangle with Rough Don Evans in the finale of a three-bout card at the Ashland road armory.

The 225-pound Etchison is rated as one of the top contenders for the National Wrestling association belt now held by Orville Brown. In the latest issue of "The Mat," wrestling publication, Etchison and Don Eagle, the Indian star, are listed as the two top challengers for the crown.

Evans, the fellow they call "One-Man Gang," easily qualifies as one of the wildest of present-day performers. His last match here with Whitey Whittler resulted in a draw when the referee stopped the bout because both grapplers were covered with blood.

Etchison and Evans will meet in a two-of-three falls match with a one-hour time limit.

Two girls will share honors with the menfolk in the 45-minute semi-windup. In this one Nell Stewart collides with Helen Hild.

The 30-minute prelimnary go pits Buzz Jones against Irish McGee.

Tickets are now on sale at the City News.

Canton Plays Gorman-Rupp

Gorman - Rupp softballers will attempt to set their Ohio Major league record back at the .500 mark when they meet Canton Stark Brick at 8:30 tonight under the local lights.

The Pumpers have won one game and lost two in league competition, beating Akron Firestone but falling before Orrville and Wooster.

Bobby Regular is expected to get Gorman-Rupp Manager Nick Weber's call to do the pitching tonight.

Tribe Slips Down to 5th In Standings

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — The second division once more has claimed the faltering Cleveland Indians.

After last night's 3-2 pasting at the hands of the Philadelphia athletics, the tribe dropped into fifth place, a full seven games off the pace of the league-leading New York Yankees.

Early Wynn will make his first start since June 2 tonight as the tribe seeks to salvage one game of the three - game set with the A's. Wynn, who has been ill with hives, defeated Boston's Red Sox 8-1 on a diet of eight hits in his last outing. He leads the tribe staff with a 3-0.

Joe Coleman will hurl for Philadelphia.

The tribe kicked over the dope bucket twice in last night's encounter.

First, they allowed a left-hander, Lou Brissie, to beat them. Opposition lefties previously had been charged with defeats in five of the tribe's last seven victories.

Second, the Indians lost their first series in the current eastern trip. They previously had knocked off the Red Sox and Yankees.

Elmer Valo's grand slam homer and Brissie's four - hit pitching cooled off the Indians completely. The only thorn in Philadelphia's side was tribe right fielder Bob Kennedy whose homer and triple accounted for both tribe runs.

The score was tied 1-1 in the fifth when Valo slammed one of Bob Lemon's fast ones far over the right field wall for a grand slam homer. It was his second grand slam circuit clout of the year and second in two nights. The blow clinched the ball game.

HEGAN FEATURES

Jim Hegan became the 21st major league catcher since 1900 to complete a double play unassisted in the fourth inning.

With the bases loaded, he pounced on a roller hit by Brissie, touched home plate, and then tagged the pitcher. Philadelphia's coach Al Simmons was ejected from the game when he argued too vigorously that Hegan had touched Brissie before touching the plate, which would have retired only Brissie.

Wildness Is Costly To Office Cafe Nine

A one-inning absence of control by Pitcher Denny Berry cost Office Cafe its undefeated record in the National softball league yesterday as it fell, 5-3, before Ideal Electric.

The Cafe nine led 1-0 going into the bottom half of the second frame, when Ideal came back for four runs. Rich Snavely led off with a double, Prosser was hit by a pitched ball and then Berry walked four straight men to push in three runs. The fourth scored on a long fly.

Office Cafe held first place in the league with a 3-1 record despite its dfeat. D. & M. Cigar store moved up to second with a 2-1 mark and Westinghouse, although winning, dropped to third with 3-2.

D. & M. edged 164th Fighter Squadron, 4-1, behind the one-hit pitching of Don Gross, while Westinghouse blasted Mansfield Tire, 13-6.

Friend of Westinghouse hit the only home run of the night.

Gorgeous Gussie In Two Matches

WIMBLEDON, Eng. — (UP) — Fancy - pants Gussie Moran faced the toughest assignment today in the Wimbledon tennis championships when she was called upon for a second round singles match and a rugged mixed doubles test.

Gorgeous Gussie, whose lace-lined scanties gave England its gaudiest spectacle since the coronation, was due to meet Betty Wilford of Britain in singles and then team with Bob Falkenburg of Hollywood, Cal., for a second round mixed doubles duel against Heraldo and Maria Weiss of Argentina.

Two Unbeaten Softball 9's Play Tonight

The most important softball game of the yet-young season is to be played at Liberty park at 6:15 p. m. today with the leadership of the fast American league at stake.

Battling for undisputed possession of the top spot will be Liederkranz and VFW Post 3494, both undefeated in three league starts. The teams are led by two of the best pitchers in the city, Kenny Windsor and Ronnie Hunt.

Since both have already met and beaten the most of the tougher teams in the circuit, the winner of today's contest is likely to be the first half champion of the league.

Two other games will be played in the loop. Isaly Dairy's "kids" will meet Sons of Herman at Prospect park and Farm Tools will play Todd's Jewelry at Johns.

Sons of Herman is probably the only team with a chance to steal the first half bunting from Liederkranz and VFW. The Herman team has been beaten only by Liederkranz in three starts.

Farm Tools is still looking for its first victory.

A Recreation league game pairs Western and Southern Insurance with Leedy Electric at Farm Tools field.

Studebakers Boost Lead In 'A' Loop

Gibson Studebaker all but sewed up the first half championship of the News-Journal A league last night as it racked up 45½ points to boost its lead. Gibson now has 364 points to second place Myers Supply's 331½ with only one week of play to go.

"Old Reliable" Joe Mayer and young Arnie Adams were the medalists for the night as each turned in two-under-par 34's over the Possum Run outside nine. Mayer's score and a one-under 35 by No. 3 man Nick Komjenovich put Gibson's over the top. Other sub-par scores were 35's by Pete Zeides and John Kleshinski, both number one men.

Only two men—Komjenovich and Adams—won the full possibility of 18 points. Mayer and Harold Bogner, Myers Supply, took down 17½ each.

Bogner had a par 36 to rate along with Ed Blonston, Ted Etzel, Grant Hannawald, and Clare Bell. Etzel's score was shot in advance as he is on vacation and spending his time practicing at Breathnach Country club, Akron, scene of the Ohio Public links tournament.

Ideal Billiards, second until yesterday, dropped to third with 319 points.

John Sain Mystery Baffles Observers

By JOE REICHLER, Associated Press Sports Writer

The mystery of Johnny Sain and his loss of pitching magic grows deeper every time the former Boston ace takes the mound.

Veteran observers, who watched the 30-year-old curveballing righthander ring up 24 victories for the Braves last year, are at a loss to explain his all-too-numerous dismal performances this season.

What has happened to Sain, a 20-game winner for the past three seasons? He is not in ill health and Sain insists his arm is as strong as ever. Then what is wrong?

Could it be that reports of strife between the pitcher and Manager Billy Southworth are true? Sain has never bothered to deny persistent reports that he and Southworth are on non-speaking terms. True or not, he is certain to finish the season under Southworth for the simple reason that the trading deadline has passed.

Sain yesterday dropped his fifth straight and his eighth of the year as the Chicago Cubs downed the Braves, 8-4, in the National league's only day game. The defeat, coupled with Philadelphia's 9-4 triumph over the Pirates in a night game, dropped the Braves into fourth place.

Sain, who has won four games, went the distance for a change, but was pummelled for nine hits, six of them for extra bases. He had been batted out of the box in five of his six previous starts. In all, he has failed to go the route eight times this year. He last won a game on May 22, a month ago.

Brooklyn increased its first place lead over the St. Louis Cardinals to a game and a half, defeating the Reds in Cincinnati, 9-4, while the New York Giants were downing the Cards, 6-5 in a 12-inning thriller in St. Louis.

REDS TAKE LEAD

The Reds, who have won only one game from Brooklyn at Crosley field since 1947, took a 3-1 lead in the third inning when Peanuts Lowrey homered with one on. The lead held up until the sixth when singles by Jackie Robinson, Carl Furillo, Billy Cox and Pitcher Preacher Roe put the Brooks ahead 4-3. Furillo's double in the seventh with the bases full, his fourth hit of the game, put it on ice.

Willard Marshall tripled in the top of the 12th, then crossed the plate with the Giants' winning run of Wes Westrum's long fly. A grand slam homer by Joe Lafata, subbing for the slumping Johnny Mize at first, kept the Giants in the game.

Willie (Puddin' Head) Jones slammed two home runs to lead the Phils to their second straight win over the Pirates.

The Philadelphia Athletics moved into second place in the American league, winning their second straight over Cleveland, 8-2. They moved past Detroit by a half game and trail the front running New York Yankees by four.

Lefty Lou Brissie limited the tribe to four hits—a triple and home run by Bob Kennedy—for his seventh triumph. Elmer Valo contributed the scoring punch, a grand slam home run off losing pitcher Bob Lemon. He also had two singles and two stolen bases.

Lefty Mel Parnell pitched the Boston Red Sox into fourth place, 6-1, against Detroit. Ted Williams helped the Red Sox stretch their winning streak to six straight, hitting his 17th home run off Art Houtteman in the sixth with two aboard.

Sid Hudson pitched a four-hitter as the Washington Senators whipped the Chicago White Sox, 9-3.

The Yankees and St. Louis Browns had an off day.

'Pappy' Walcott Battles Charles for Title

Publinx Program Released

AKRON — Official program for the Ohio Public Links golf championship at Breathnach Country club this week end was announced today by W. F. Bebout, tournament manager.

Starting times for the first day's play were posted along with plans for the annual state Public Links banquet Friday night.

A pro-amateur best-ball will be played Thursday to acquaint contestants with the course and the tournament itself will start at 6:30 a. m. Friday, Mansfield time. Golfers will play in foursomes and will start off of both the first and tenth tees so that all will have the same weather conditions. All should be trying out their putters by 7:30.

Mansfield's three entrants—Pete Thomas, Bernie Mathias, and Ted Etzel all have the later starting times. Thoma is scheduled to go off the tenth tee at 7:06 and Etzel at 7:12. Mathias tees off No. 1 at 7:12.

The order will be reversed in the afternoon with the one who started off the tenth tee in the morning getting the first tee for their final 18-hole jaunt. Mathias is the only Mansfielder entered in the pro-amateur.

Eighty golfers in all play the 36 holes Friday with the top 15 and defending champion Val Chiaverini entering match play Saturday morning.

The match play continues through Sunday afternoon, all over the 18-hole route, and Chiaverini is expecting tough opposition.

Among the hot-shots in the field are former champion Barney Hunt of Columbus; Jim Caspio of Cleveland, a national open qualifier; Don Shock of Dayton, former state high school great; Nick Ogrizovich of Steubenville, the national Serbian champion; Ed Koski of Steubenville, 1947 national Polish champ and runnerup in 1948; and John Nowack, Cleveland's city king.

The four-day schedule, Thursday, through Sunday, calls for a 126-hole grind—one of the toughest in tournament golf. For each of three straight days 36 holes are scheduled.

Fun is on tap Friday night at the annual banquet, with three mayors as speakers. Giving addresses will be Mayor Joseph W. Harding of Cuyahoga Falls, Mayor Charles E. Slusser of Akron, and Mayor James A. Rhodes of Columbus, national AAU president and head of the State Publinks association.

Paul E. Brown, general manager and coach of the Cleveland Browns, is a probable added starter on the speaking program, along with W. F. Bebout, the tournament manager.

Two toastmasters have been named for the banquet—Charley Burns of Akron, manager of the Breathnach club, and Fritz Howell of the Associated Press—both officers in the State Public Links association.

'Ez' Rates As Slight Favorite

By JACK CUDDY

CHICAGO — (UP) — The odds favoring Ezzard Charles slipped to 6½ to 5 today for his NBA-recognized heavyweight championship fight tonight with Jersey Joe Walcott, and bookmakers thought the price might be even money by gong-time.

A ton of money backing the ancient Walcott was pouring into the city as the time crept nigh for the 15-round bout at Comiskey park. Too, Charles showed up very poorly in his final preparations before he seeks the title vacated by Joe Louis.

FIGURES BIG GATE

Louis is one of the promoters of the show, scheduled exactly 12 years from the night that he won the title from Jim Braddock. And today the Brown Bomber said the bout would be a financial success—that the forecast of cool, dry weather would produce a $300,000 gate.

Charles spent the night at a downtown hotel after driving in from his camp near Kankakee, Ill. Walcott waited until today to come in from his training quarters at Momence:, Ill., in time for the weigh-in at the Chicago stadium. Charles, 27, expected to scale about 179 pounds. Walcott, 35, aimed at 195—approximately what he registered for his two title fights with Louis.

Charles was established the betting favorite because of his comparative youth. Despite the general respect for Walcott's bag of tricks and his punch that had floored Louis three times, betting men were cautious about backing a contender who was eight years older than Charles.

Were Walcott a few years younger, he would be favored at about 3-1 because of his weight advantage, his trickery, and his punch.

In tonight's contest between youth and experience, Walcott was expected to try for a quick knockout, although Ezzard had been belted out but once before in 69 professional fights. Lloyd Marshall turned the trick in 1943.

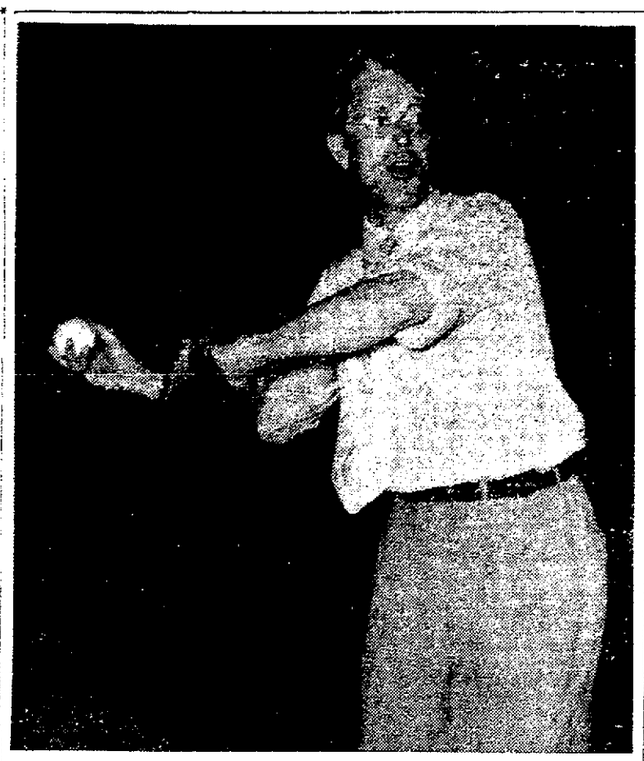
Meanwhile Charles was expected to concentrate on evading Walcott's over-handed right in the early rounds, and to keep sending "sneakers" into Walcott's body until the "old man" was worn down.

FATHER OF SIX

Charles was expected to have more stamina than Jersey Joe, father of six children. Charles has been campaigning actively during the past year, whereas Walcott hasn't fought since his second bout with Louis, last June 25.

The winner will NOT be recognized as champion by the New York boxing commission nor by the British boxing board of control. To gain undisputed world recognition, he must fight the winner of the London bout between Lee Savold and England's Bruce Woodcock, scheduled for Sept. 6.

Twice previously have heavyweights fought for a vacant crown. After Jim Jeffries retired in 1905, Marvin Hart and Jack Root fought for the title. Hart stopped Root in the 12th round. After Gene Tunney retired, Max Schmeling and Jack Sharkey fought for the dijem in 1930, and Schmeling won on a fourth-round foul.



LIMBERS FOR STRIKE—Mayor Roy Vaughn begins his motion to throw the first "strike" at the official opening of the Hot Stove league junior baseball program last night at the Gorman-Rupp field. Service-Safety Director Earl Garrison caught the pitch. However, rain spoiled the opening twin bill as Colony Alleys was leading National Electric, 3 to 0, in the second inning when the first game had to be called. Both games will be played later under the lights.

Big Ten Wins 4th In Row From Coast Track Team

By ROY CUMMINGS

BERKELEY, Cal.—(INS)—The gap is narrowing for the western conference known as the "Big Ten."

The Big Ten proved it with points last night at Berkeley. Its all-star track team walloped the Pacific Coast league's best, 70 to 62, in the ninth annual dual meet between the two organizations.

The victory was the fourth straight for the Big Ten. Prior to that string of wins, the PCC captured five consecutive meets.

Don Gehrmann, 130-pounder from Wisconsin, took most of the applause and just about everything else in sight. He won the mile in 4:16.5 and the half-mile in 1:52.2, nosing out Michigan's Herb Barten.

Gehrmann then tried a lap in the relay and was three yards in front when he handed the baton to Ohio State's Mal Whitfield, who added seven more and the race.

Mel Patton, upon whom the coast depended so much took the 440-yard relay anchor post for a PCC victory, and then won the 100-yard dash in 9.6. Then he reported an ailing leg stiffened and he withdrew from the 220. A victory there would have tied the points at 66 to 66 for the meet.

EASY VICTORY

Indiana's Charley Peters found the win an easy one with Patton out, going the route in 20.7, with Minnesota's Tom Mason second. The triumph was Peters' third in the 220's in the annual meet.

Harry Cogswell of Ohio State, Bob Comer of Minnesota, and Gehrmann and Whitfield combined on the relay.

Other winners included Whitfield in the 440, at :46.1; Jim Urquhart of Indiana in the two-mile, 9:18.6; trailed closely by Williams of Michigan and Twomey of Illinois; Dwight Eddleman, high jump of 6' 4;" Minnesota's Byrl Thompson, discus toss of 167' 4¾."

Lew Davis of Stanford put the shot 54' 8¾" on one try to tap the old record of 53' 11-½" set by Stan Anderson of Stanford in 1939. It was the only mark broken.

Glamour Boy Meets Evans, Here Saturday

Ronnie Etchison, one of the glamour boys of the wrestling profession, comes to Mansfield Saturday night to tangle with Rough Don Evans in the finale of a three-bout card at the Ashland road armory.

The 225-pound Etchison is rated as one of the top contenders for the National Wrestling association belt now held by Orville Brown. In the latest issue of "The Mat," wrestling publication, Etchison and Don Eagle, the Indian star, are listed as the two top challengers for the crown.

Evans, the fellow they call "One-Man Gang," easily qualifies as one of the wildest of present-day performers. His last match here with Whitey Whittler resulted in a draw when the referee stopped the bout because both grapplers were covered with blood.

Etchison and Evans will meet in a two-of-three falls match with a one-hour time limit.

Two girls will share honors with the menfolk in the 45-minute semi-windup. In this one Nell Stewart collides with Helen Hild.

The 30-minute prelimnary go pits Buzz Jones against Irish McGee.

Tickets are now on sale at the City News.

Tribe Slips Down to 5th In Standings

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — The second division once more has claimed the faltering Cleveland Indians.

After last night's 8-2 pasting at the hands of the Philadelphia athletics, the tribe dropped into fifth place, a full seven games off the pace of the league-leading New York Yankees.

Early Wynn will make his first start since June 2 tonight as the tribe seeks to salvage one game of the three - game set with the A's. Wynn, who has been ill with hives, defeated Boston's Red Sox 8-1 on a diet of eight hits in his last outing. He leads the tribe staff with a 3-0.

Joe Coleman will hurl for Philadelphia.

The tribe kicked over the dope bucket twice in last night's encounter.

First, they allowed a left-hander, Lou Brissie, to beat them. Opposition lefties previously had been charged with defeats in five of the tribe's last seven victories.

Second, the Indians lost their first series in the current eastern trip. They previously had knocked off the Red Sox and Yankees.

Elmer Valo's grand slam homer and Brissie's four - hit pitching cooled off the Indians completely. The only thorn in Philadelphia's side was tribe right fielder Bob Kennedy whose homer and triple accounted for both tribe runs.

The score was tied 1-1 in the fifth when Valo slammed one of Bob Lemon's fast ones far over the right field wall for a grand slam homer. It was his second grand slam circuit clout of the year and second in two nights. The blow clinched the ball game.

HEGAN FEATURES

Jim Hegan became the 21st major league catcher since 1900 to complete a double play unassisted in the fourth inning.

With the bases loaded, he pounced on a roller hit by Brissie, touched home plate, and then tagged the pitcher. Philadelphia's coach Al Simmons was ejected from the game when he argued too vigorously that Hegan had touched Brissie before touching the plate, which would have retired only Brissie.

Wildness Is Costly To Office Cafe Nine

A one-inning absence of control by Pitcher Denny Berry cost Office Cafe its undefeated record in the National softball league yesterday as it fell, 5-3, before Ideal Electric.

The Cafe nine led 1-0 going into the bottom half of the second frame, when Ideal came back for four runs. Rich Snavely led off with a double. Prosser was hit by a pitched ball and then Berry walked four straight men to push in three runs. The fourth scored on a long fly.

Office Cafe held first place in the league with a 3-1 record despite its dfeat. D. & M. Cigar store moved up to second with a 2-1 mark and Westinghouse, although winning, dropped to third with 3-2.

D. & M. edged 164th Fighter Squadron, 4-1, behind the one-hit pitching of Don Gross, while Westinghouse blasted Mansfield Tire, 13-6.

Friend of Westinghouse hit the only home run of the night.

Gorgeous Gussie In Two Matches

WIMBLEDON, Eng. — (UP) — Fancy - pants Gussie Moran faced the toughest assignment today in the Wimbledon tennis championships when she was called upon for a second round singles match and a rugged mixed doubles test.

Gorgeous Gussie, whose laced-lined scanties gave England its gaudiest spectacle since the coronation, was due to meet Betty Wilford of Britain in singles and then team with Bob Falkenburg of Hollywood, Cal., for a second round mixed doubles duel against Heraldo and Maria Weiss of Argentina.

Two Unbeaten Softball 9's Play Tonight

The most important softball game of the yet-young season is to be played at Liberty park at 6:15 p. m. today with the leadership of the fast American league at stake.

Battling for undisputed possession of the top spot will be Liederkranz and VFW Post 3494, both undefeated in three league starts. The teams are led by two of the best pitchers in the city, Kenny Windsor and Ronnie Hunt.

Since both have already met and beaten the most of the tougher teams in the circuit, the winner of today's contest is likely to be the first half champion of the league.

Two other games will be played in the loop. Isaly Dairy's "kids" will meet Sons of Herman at Prospect park and Farm Tools will play Todd's Jewelry at Johns.

Sons of Herman is probably the only team with a chance to steal the first half bunting from Liederkranz and VFW. The Herman team has been beaten only by Liederkranz in three starts.

Farm Tools is still looking for its first victory.

A Recreation league game pairs Western and Southern Insurance with Leedy Electric at Farm Tools field.

Studebakers Boost Lead In 'A' Loop

Gibson Studebaker all but sewed up the first half championship of the News-Journal A league last night as it racked up 45½ points to boost its lead. Gibson now has 364 points to second place Myers Supply's 331½ with only one week of play to go.

"Old Reliable" Joe Mayer and young Arnie Adams were the medalists for the night as each turned in two-under-par 34's over the Possum Run outside nine. Mayer's score and a one-under 35 by No. 3 man Nick Komjenovich put Gibson's over the top. Other sub-par scores were 35's by Pete Zeides and John Kleshinski, both number one men.

Only two men—Komjenovich and Adams—won the full possibility of 18 points. Mayer and Harold Bogner, Myers Supply, took down 17½ each.

Bogner had a par 36 to rate along with Ed Blonston, Ted Etzel, Grant Hannawald, and Clare Bell. Etzel's score was shot in advance as he is on vacation and spending his time practicing at Breathnach Country club, Akron, scene of the Ohio Public links tournament.

Ideal Billiards, second until yesterday, dropped to third with 319 points.

John Sain Mystery Baffles Observers

By JOE REICHLER, Associated Press Sports Writer

The mystery of Johnny Sain and his loss of pitching magic grows deeper every time the former Boston ace takes the mound.

Veteran observers, who watched the 30-year-old curveballing righthander ring up 24 victories for the Braves last year, are at a loss to explain his all-too-numerous dismal performances this season.

What has happened to Sain, a 20-game winner for the past three seasons? He is not in ill health and Sain insists his arm is as strong as ever. Then what is wrong?

Could it be that reports of strife between the pitcher and Manager Billy Southworth are true? Sain has never bothered to deny persistent reports that he and Southworth are on non-speaking terms. True or not, he is certain to finish the season under Southworth for the simple reason that the trading deadline has passed.

Sain yesterday dropped his fifth straight and his eighth of the year as the Chicago Cubs downed the Braves, 8-4, in the National league's only day game. The defeat, coupled with Philadelphia's 9-4 triumph over the Pirates in a night game, dropped the Braves into fourth place.

Sain, who has won four games, went the distance for a change, but was pummelled for nine hits, six of them for extra bases. He had been batted out of the box in five of his six previous starts. In all, he has failed to go the route eight times this year. He last won a game on May 22, a month ago.

Brooklyn increased its first place lead over the St. Louis Cardinals to a game and a half, defeating the Reds in Cincinnati, 9-4, while the New York Giants were downing the Cards, 6-5 in a 12-inning thriller in St. Louis.

REDS TAKE LEAD

The Reds, who have won only one game from Brooklyn at Crosley field since 1947, took a 3-1 lead in the third inning when Peanuts Lowrey homered with one on. The lead held up until the sixth when singles by Jackie Robinson, Carl Furillo, Billy Cox and Pitcher Preacher Roe put the Brooks ahead 4-3. Furillo's double in the seventh with the bases full, his fourth hit of the game, put it on ice.

Willard Marshall tripled in the top of the 12th, then crossed the plate with the Giants' winning run of Wes Westrum's long fly. A grand slam homer by Joe Lafata, subbing for the slumping Johnny Mize at first, kept the Giants in the game.

Willie (Puddin' Head) Jones slammed two home runs to lead the Phils to their second straight win over the Pirates.

The Philadelphia Athletics moved into second place in the American league, winning their second straight over Cleveland, 8-2. They moved past Detroit by a half game and trail the front running New York Yankees by four.

Lefty Lou Brissie limited the tribe to four hits—a triple and home run by Bob Kennedy—for his seventh triumph. Elmer Valo contributed the scoring punch, a grand slam home run off losing pitcher Bob Lemon. He also had two singles and two stolen bases.

Lefty Mel Parnell pitched the Boston Red Sox into fourth place, 6-1, against Detroit. Ted Williams helped the Red Sox stretch their winning streak to six straight, hitting his 17th home run off Art Houtteman in the sixth with two aboard.

Sid Hudson pitched a four-hitter as the Washington Senators whipped the Chicago White Sox, 9-3.

The Yankees and St. Louis Browns had an off day.
